

OFFICIAL CONFESSES TO FORGERY

BIG BATTLE IS ON NEAR ACAPULCO

Federals and Zapata Revolutionists Are in Deadly Conflict

Fighting Continues at Mazatlan; Killing at Mine Confirmed

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Admiral Howard, commanding the American fleet on the Pacific coast of Mexico, reported a battle today between Mexican federalists and Zapata revolutionists twenty miles from Acapulco. Admiral Howard said that sixteen revolutionists were killed. The fighting at Mazatlan continues, the report said. Secretary Daniels received a message late today from Rear Admiral Badger stating that heavy fighting had been heard throughout the day at Tampico. Admiral Badger said reports were coming from Admiral Mayo, whose ships are off Tampico. Admiral Badger reported that bombardment of the town by Constitutional army began at 9 a. m. and had continued all day.

HOPEFUL OVER MEDIATION. WASHINGTON, May 12.—Members of the cabinet, after a prolonged conference today with President Wilson, the Mexican situation, declared the President maintained confidence that mediation would succeed and that further serious consequences in Mexico would be averted.

HERNAN FORTIFIES CAPITAL. ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, May 12.—(By wireless to San Diego, Cal., May 12).—Mexican Federal troops defending San Blas, a seaport on the coast of Mexico, were reported to have evacuated the town. It is understood they were ordered to proceed to Mexico City to strengthen the forces there. It is believed troops at other points on the west coast will be ordered to the capital. Americans in the Tancitaro valley, reassured by the cordial attitude of the Constitutionalists, have decided to remain on their ranches. General Obregon is said to have guaranteed them every protection. Walter Neal, an American, who was wounded by Federalists recently near El Favor mine, is now safe with his family aboard the cruiser Maryland at Mazatlan, according to a wireless message received from that vessel today. Neal confirmed the report of an attack on the mine April 26 and the killing of C. E. Hoadley, an American, and E. G. Williams, an Englishman. Desultory fighting continues at Mazatlan. The gunboat Guerrero, which left Mazatlan May 7, carrying city officials.

BECKER ACCUSED

"Jack" Rose, Star Witness, Relates Threat Against Gambler Herman Rosenthal.

NEW YORK, May 12.—"Bald Jack" Rose, star witness of the first trial of Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, appeared in that role again today. He took the stand shortly before noon and calmly told of the part he played in the events leading up to the gambler's death. Substantially, it was the same story as he told at the first trial. Briefly Rose related how Becker and Rosenthal had entered into partnership in a gambling establishment; how they quarreled; how exposure for Becker was imminent; and how Rosenthal's death was plotted. "After the house had been running a month," Rose went on, "Becker wanted money. "There had better be some dividends," Becker said, "or I'll close him up." "He told me complaints had begun about the place and asked me to get out," Rose said. "When I explained this to Herman he said: 'Don't you think I'm a fool? Every body knows Becker is my partner and to have my partner raid me would make me the laughing stock of New York.' "Rosenthal threatened, if the raid was carried out, to make trouble. When I told Becker that," added Rose, "he said he would show Rosenthal. The raid, he said, would be made the next night. It was."

Goethals to Send First Ship Into Canal Next Week

PANAMA, May 12.—The first ship to pass through the Panama canal under regular conditions probably will make the trip early next week. According to Governor Goethals the channel through Cuzacocha will be completed about Thursday. Observations will be maintained on the slide for a short time and then a Panama railway ship with cargo will be sent through. The channel is being dredged at the rate of 100 feet daily and the Empire suspension bridge will be removed immediately. The report that the steamer Pennsylvania of the Pacific Mail line will make the passage of the canal is erroneous.

BANDIT EX-JUSTICE OF PEACE

Railroad Detective Believes Man Did Not Shoot Self

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—James S. Hogue, the daring bandit who held up the Southern Pacific Company's fast daylight San Francisco-Los Angeles train, the Coaster, in tunnel No. 5, near this city at a late hour last night, was formerly justice of the peace and corner of Ashford, Ariz. He has been a railroad man for a number of years and turned highwayman, the police believe, only since January 1. According to Patrick Kndelon, chief of detectives of the Southern Pacific Company, Hogue has been responsible for two other hold-ups besides the one perpetrated last night and had made plans to embark upon a criminal career as the easiest way in which to make his fortune. Hogue's wife and two little ones visited him at the Central Emergency hospital and following an examination by Surgeons Michaelson and Peattie this morning it was stated that unless bloodpoisoning sets in he will recover. The statement that the bandit shot himself when he saw he was cornered by the detectives on the train is scouted by Kndelon and his subordinates, as well as by the attending physicians, who assert there are absolutely no powder marks. Hogue's wife and two little ones visited him at the Central Emergency hospital and following an examination by Surgeons Michaelson and Peattie this morning it was stated that unless bloodpoisoning sets in he will recover.

WOUND LIKE HENRY'S. "Hogue's wound is almost identical with that suffered by Francis J. Henry of this city, who was shot by Morris Haas in Judge Lawlor's courtroom," explained Dr. Michaelson. "The bullet entered the left cheek and came out below the right ear." The other crimes which are laid at Hogue's door by the Southern Pacific detective department are the holding of the train at the Central Emergency hospital.

New Tenderloin Gets Notice to Close Up

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Chief of Police White this morning served notice on several resorts in the new Tenderloin that they would be given two months in which to close their places. The Ellis and O'Farrell streets Improvement Club complained to the chief that the district bounded by

FEARS LONG PRISON TERM

Officers Taunted Him With Extreme Penalty, He Says

Worry and Despondency Impel Him to Seek Death

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—William Meehan, a lightweight pugilist who achieved quite a reputation in sporting circles by so aptly through his successes in bouts at Vallejo, Stockton and other places, attempted suicide in the dock of Superior Judge Dunne's court this morning as he was about to be sentenced for violating his parole. Meehan, who is not to be confused with Willie Meehan, the local middleweight of great fame heretofore, was arrested January 5 for driving away, without the owner's consent, the automobile of Julian H. Weissstein, a local realty broker. Judge Dunne threatened him on probation. Several days ago he was again arrested for forgery. He has been in trouble several times. Today Meehan was in court for sentence for violating probation, and declares that he was told by the probation officers that he would probably receive a sentence of fifteen years. Taking from his pocket a bit of tin, which he had sharpened and concealed and wrapped in a cloth, he snatched at his throat.

ATTEMPT FAILS. Keeping his head down to avoid observation, he asked to be taken from the courtroom for a moment. One of the bailiffs escorted him to the lavatory, where he again lashed his throat. The officer did not watch him and it was not until he was again returned to the dock that it was noticed he was bleeding from an ulnar wound. The search revealed the bit of tin, and he was taken to the city prison, where a temporary bandage was put on his wound. "They told me I was going to get fifteen years and I couldn't stand it," he explained afterwards. "I have a wife and we expect a new arrival next month. I was overcome with grief and I wanted to get rid of it all." Judge Dunne said that he had tried to be lenient with Meehan on other occasions when the man was arrested. He was not sentenced today, owing to the fact that a formal motion to revoke probation had not been made.

RALSTON IN RACE

Ex-Sub Treasurer Announces Candidacy for gubernatorial Nomination.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—William C. Ralston, former United States sub-treasurer in San Francisco, announced today that he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the next primary election. He intended to be a business men's candidate. It was announced.

Ralston held the federal post here for eight years, being appointed by President Roosevelt. Before that he was a member of the state senate, and earlier of the assembly. He has been in public life in California for many years.

San Francisco Gets Auto Races for 1915

Auto circles on both sides of the bay were interested today in the announcement that the two premier auto races of the world would be run inside the exposition grounds in 1915. The Vanderbilt cup race and the Grand Prix race have both been secured by the P. P. I. E. board of directors. The races will take place two weeks apart, with the Vanderbilt cup race first. A five-mile course is proposed, to include the mile circular track on the grounds, with two straightways at each end.

VANDALS AT WORK M'Carthy REPLIES

Classic Columns of Highland Drive Wrecked by Miscreants.

Who are the mysterious vandals who have in the past two weeks broken many of the artistic cement columns marking the crossings of the famous Highland Drive, the show boulevard of Oakland? This is the question detectives and the commercial bodies that worked in erecting the piles are seeking to solve. The latest of the outrages occurred last night. This morning the pillar at the corner of Grand avenue and Harrison boulevard was found shattered, the base still in the earth, the ornamental top of the pillar thrown aside, and the pillar itself rolled into the gutter. Two other pillars on Harrison boulevard have been similarly treated within the last few weeks, and one at the end of Euclid avenue, in Berkeley, marking the northern terminal of the road, was destroyed last week. The damage is done in the same manner in each case. The pillar is broken near its base and the top is then split off. This is carried in one direction and the pillar rolled away some distance in the other. The police cannot conceive of any reason for the acts of vandalism. The pillars were erected by the Building Trades Council, a part of the so-called master painters' strike.

Berkeley, together with several private firms and corporations. They cost in the neighborhood of $1500. The big white columns mark the chain of streets from the Hotel Oakland to North Berkeley, winding over the hills of Piedmont and Berkeley and through the University of California campus. The drive is one of the principal attractions of three east bay cities.

Killed in Collision

LONDON, May 12.—Two army aviators, Captain F. D. Anderson and a mechanic named Carter, were instantly killed and Lieutenant C. W. Wilson was injured when two biplanes collided in the air at Aldershot today.

Send's Letter to Employers; Expect Painters' Lockout Tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The issuance of a long statement which was a copy of a letter dispatched by P. H. McCarthy, president of the Building Trades Council to George S. McCallum, secretary of the Building Trades Employers' Association, and a session at noon in the offices of the Employers' Association in the Pacific building, were the latest developments today in the threatened lockout of 15,000 union men. Nothing appears likely to prevent the enforcement of the ultimatum delivered by the employers to the effect that if the striking painters do not return to work a general strike in the building trades will be called tonight at 5 o'clock. McCarthy was summoned to a session with the association, participated in by union leaders and representatives of the employers at 11 a. m. What the outcome will be is extremely doubtful but it is thought that neither side will yield. The letter sent by McCarthy to McCallum was issued as a statement by the former explaining the position of the Building Trades Council toward the threatened lockout. Referring to a conference held between representatives of both organizations, McCarthy says: "The Building Trades Council never was a party to the so-called agreement between the so-called master painters and the employers' association."

CHARGES MONOPOLY.

"The aim and endeavor of the said master painters was to establish a monopoly of the painting business for themselves by trying to have the journeymen painters work for no one but them. "The so-called Master Painters' Association constitutes but a fraction of the established painting contractors of San Francisco and vicinity and that outside and removed from their so-called association are men who stand among the most responsible employing painters anywhere."

Dancing and Art Form Part of Occidental Education

Custom cannot state the infinite variety of Miss Sue Wong, who appears to carry into China the arts and ideals of this Occidental region. Born to the hard compulsions of the Chinese girl, she has broken the fetters of her race. For redeemed by a Methodist mission in San Francisco from bondage, after her mother had parted from her, the girl acquired the rudiments of an American education and the conventions of western civilization. Wherefore, it came that she learned something of art, and presently her friends perceived that she had talent. So they got her a scholarship and put her into an art school.

Now, and as one of the students in the school, she has attained in competition a principal role in a fantasy called "Millennium," which will be presented tonight in Berkeley. She will play the part of "Folly" and will wear lights.

TO TEACH ORIENTAL SISTERS. In a costume as daring as any "chorus lady" ever donned, Miss Wong will give interpretative dances and such pantomime as her assumed character requires. She has, in fact, been studying dancing as well as literature and colors, and it is part of her purpose, when she returns to her native soil, to teach the maidens of Canton or Shanghai how to tread the dances of Europe and America. Miss Wong is one of the graduating class of the Arts and Crafts school in Berkeley, where the play will be given tonight. The fantasy of "Millennium" was written by classmates, and only schoolmates will appear. But of all those in the cast none has quite so debonair and blithe a character to portray as has the little Chinese girl.

Seattle Fire Does Damage of $300,000

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 12.—The Red Cross today declined an offer of $5000 tendered by the American Red Cross for relief of earthquake sufferers at Catania. SURRENDERS TO BERKELEY POLICE

Tired of Wandering, Southern Insurance Man Gives Self Up

Admits He Overdrew on Salary Account; Used Firm Name on Check

BERKELEY, May 12.—Robert E. Mills, vice-president and general manager of a Los Angeles insurance underwriting concern, surrendered to the Berkeley police at an early hour this morning and asked that he be sent back to Los Angeles to be used for forgery. He is accused, he told the police, of uttering a check signed with the name of his company, but not with his counter-signature. In explanation he said the company was in arrears to him for his salary and that when in need he had remunerated himself in part with the funds. For a year Mills said he was associated with the Los Angeles Underwriting agency. The affairs of the company were involved, he added, and his own overdue salary soon rose to several hundred dollars. As funds of the company came in he drew on his salary account. Last year he left Los Angeles and in December the forgery warrant was issued. For two months Mills asserts he had wandered about the bay cities, anxious to give himself up, but when he drew near to a police station his courage flagged, and it was not until after dark yesterday that he actually could fulfill his purpose. Today he is calmly awaiting detectives from Los Angeles.

PAID HIMSELF. According to Mills' statement the underwriting company has recently been reorganized as the International Security Company and does business in several kinds of insurance. After its reorganization Mills declares that he was elected president, he (Mills) was elected vice-president and general manager and Dr. Jacob of Fresno, secretary-treasurer. Mills claims that his election was in due form and that he was promised a salary of $50 a week. Of this he says he was paid about $25 or $30 and that he paid himself out of the funds of the company a small part of the balance due him as these funds came in. Later he left Los Angeles and about the end of December a warrant was issued for his arrest on a charge of forgery based upon a check which he signed with the name of the company without adding his own name thereto.

Organizing Pacific Coast Reserve Bank

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—About fifty bankers of California, Oregon, Washington, Arizona, Idaho, Utah and Nevada met this morning in the clearing house to effect organization of the Pacific Coast federal reserve bank. The meeting is being held at the invitation of the clearing houses of San Francisco and Los Angeles. The Treasury Department yesterday made public the list of organization certificate banks for the San Francisco district. This list includes the First National Bank, San Francisco; Phoenix National Bank, Phoenix, Arizona; First National Bank, Portland, Oregon; Deseret National Bank, Salt Lake City, Utah; National Bank of Commerce, Seattle, Washington.

Etna Active Again; Slight Shocks Felt

CATANIA, Sicily, May 12.—Slight shocks of earthquake were felt today in this vicinity and Mount Etna became active again. During the night tongues of flame issued from the crater which is surrounded by a high column of smoke. "Italian Red Cross expresses highest appreciation your friendly generosity. Outside help happily not required."

Revenue Cutter to Aid Grounded Ship

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 12.—The revenue cutter Tancredia is expected to reach today the unidentified four-masted schooner which last night was reported aground in Nassau Sound, five miles from the mouth of the St. Johns river. Signals of distress were picked up by a Clyde steamer and the cutter left here at midnight.

NEW FEATURES IN FETE RELIEF WORKERS HOSTS

Program for Children Ready

Never has any affair ever planned by the Ladies Relief Society of Oakland the oldest charity in the east bay region, which for over 40 years has maintained a nursery, a children's home and a home for aged women, so much interest with the public as the May fete which will be given on Saturday afternoon at Piedmont Park. This entertaining every day to preside over the fete will be one of the features of the afternoon. Extra cars will run direct to the fete grounds and every effort will be made to accommodate a large attendance.

The value of the relief society as one of the finest assets of the city is generally recognized. For this reason the festival should be generously patronized. Music for the afternoon will be given by the orchestra and the choral societies of the three Oakland high schools. A large number of prizes for the best home-made and the best ready-made will be given.

There will be dancing until a late hour in the pavilion. The Manzanita Camp Fire Girls will give a Chinese and Japanese song and dance in costume and other interesting numbers are being arranged.

RELEASE VICE-CONSUL

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Senator Olvera, the Mexican minister in Mexico City, informed the state department today that the Mexican government has ordered the immediate release of Vice-Consul John R. Shuman, held a prisoner at Saltillo. The minister added that as soon as Mr. Shuman reached Mexico City he would obtain for him safe conduct to Vera Cruz.

American Mail Held by Mexican Outpost

WASHINGTON, May 12.—President Wilson and members of the cabinet discussed today plans for participation by the United States in the Mexican mediation conference to be held Monday at Niagara Falls, Ontario, and various problems which have arisen since the occupation of Vera Cruz by American military forces.

Just before the cabinet met a message was received from General Funston at Vera Cruz, in which the general stated that the situation should be kept in mind reports that Mexican forces were threatening to attack the Vera Cruz water works. General Funston said there was no indication of movements on any such attack.

"There have been rumors," General Funston's message said, "that an attack was threatened. These have

The case containing the body of Dennis J. Lane, accompanied by the father, John P. Lane, arrived at the Lane home in East Forty-fifth street from the navy yard last night. In the house Mrs. Catherine Lane, the mother, waited. She was overcome by her joy that the coffin could not be opened.

Later those in the streets were allowed to enter and hundreds passed the flag-draped casket. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

SHRINERS PARADE

Atlanta Declares Civic Holiday in Honor of Order; 40,000 Nobles in Line.

ATLANTA, May 12.—Following the formal opening of the Imperial Council last night with an attendance of over thirty thousand Nobles of the Shrine, the visiting delegates from all parts of the country took possession of the city today, which had been declared a civic holiday by Mayor Woodward in honor of the order. The two parades of the Shriner's morning surpassed anything of the kind seen here in splendor and pageantry. It is estimated that forty thousand persons participated in the parades including the local temples.

The "Golden State Battalion" consisting of the nobles of four California temples, is attracting much attention through the strenuous efforts it is making to win the 1915 convention for San Francisco. The nobles are distributing California fruit and literature in quantities. Seattle is looking for the next convention and it is much to be desired that the right is being waged by the Californians.

Pledges the selection of a convention city the convention is to decide on applications for new temples and the election of a supreme outer guard, today.

master painters and the general public of that fact fully six months ago.

"Immediately thereafter the journeyman painters, through their district council of painters took a vote of their entire membership and the enforcement of the rate of wages promised for fully seven years, and by repeated promises in 1909 and 1910 that the job of the journeymen painters was unanimous in favor of the establishment of the said promised wage of $3.00 per day, or 50 cents per hour, lower than that maintained in Chicago and 25 cents lower than the wage maintained in many other business centers of our country and that the said master painters were so notified."

McCarthy declares that he stands for urging the painters to finish the work already contracted for at the old rates and that the strike be called off, and that he is not in favor of doing any injustice to any one.

NO CONCILIATION. SACRAMENTO, May 12.—An effort by the San Francisco Corelation Board to avert the threatened war troubles in San Francisco by which 12,000 to 15,000 workers in the building trades will be locked out of employment by the Building Trades Employers' Association, was defeated today when H. J. Ralston, vice-president of the association, stated that he would allow the differences to be arbitrated before the conciliation board.

The San Francisco Conciliation Board is composed of twelve employers and twelve labor men and was formed for the purpose of averting such labor troubles as that threatening San Francisco. Colonel Harris Weinstein, a member of the board, is in Sacramento conducting hearings of the State Industrial Accident Commission.

TRAIN BANDIT EX-MAGISTRATE

Hogue Accused of Other Hold-Ups by Railroad Detective.

up of train 87, between San Mateo and Burlingame on February 24 and the rifting of the express car, and the raiding of the mail car on train No. 7, between Los Angeles and Tropic, on April 20.

"There is not a question of a doubt but that this man is responsible for those holdups, although he will not yet admit it," declared Chief of Detectives Kindelon. "He answered the description in every way. He is 46 years old and his features, height and weight are approximately the same as in the circulars we sent out following the two holdups which I have mentioned.

"It is foolish to say that the bandit shot himself. He was shot by Detective Willis Garbe, the bullet striking him in the face. The wound in his hand was caused by a bullet fired by Detective A. Cottrill. The other man responsible for overpowering Hogue was Albert Randree, the third cook on the train, who struck him with a pick. All of these men deserve great credit."

IN PISTOL DUEL

Fighting a furious pistol duel with two Southern Pacific detectives after holding up several passengers on the "Coaster," at 10:25 last night, and after throwing several cars into a panic, Hogue was struck in the head by a bullet from one of the detectives' revolvers. A moment later an ice-packer, wielded by Albert Randree, a negro cook on the dining car, struck the man. He sank, dazed and helpless, to the car floor, the revolver dropping from his fingers.

PLEADS HUNGER

The man, following his attempted suicide, informed the detectives that he had been out of work, was destitute, that his family was hungry, and that necessity compelled him to rob. The holdup was attempted by the old expedient of flagging the train. The Coaster was nearing tunnel No. 5, near South San Francisco, when the engineer, seeing a red light ahead, brought his train to a stop. The bandit swung on to the rear platform, encountering Brakeman J. M. Gaskill, who, looking into the muzzle of the man's revolver, made no resistance. The brakeman was backed away and the bandit turned to four men on the observation platform. These were Charles E. Temple, Matt V. Brady, M. E. Wood and Thomas E. Stephens. Hastily going through the clothing of the four, the robber pocketed their money, watches and jewelry, and then turned into the car. Passengers from the inside, who had seen the holdup through the glass doors, had in the meantime fled through the dining car to the coaches ahead, spreading the alarm.

DETECTIVES "ON JOB."
In a coach forward the alarm was received by the two Southern Pacific detectives, Willis Garbe and G. Cottrill. The officers hastened back through the dining car, the robber, working through the first coach, entered the diner, where they were confronted by the officers. Gun fire started at once. Three times the robber was wounded in the two-to-one battle, but continued battling. Finally, as the last of the bullets struck him in the head, the cook creeping up behind him, felled him with the ice-packer, a heavy instrument, which sent its victim crashing heavily to the car floor. The man was at once seized, bound and brought to the Central Emergency hospital.

Mrs. James S. Hogue, wife of the bandit, was in the train at the time.

MAKES RHEUMATISM PROMPTLY DISAPPEAR

Chronic, Crippled-up Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses of New Remedy Are Taken

It is needless to suffer any longer with rheumatism and be all crippled up and bent out of shape with its heart-wrenching pains, when you can surely avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak, inactive kidneys, that fail to filter from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid; and it is useless to rub on liniments or take ordinary remedies to relieve the pain. This only prolongs the misery and can't possibly cure you.

The only way to cure rheumatism is to remove the cause. The new discovery, Croxone, does this because it neutralizes and dissolves all the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause inflammation, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped-up, inactive kidneys, so they can filter all the poisons from the blood and drive it on and out of the system.

Croxone is the most wonderful medicine ever made for curing chronic rheumatism, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered. It is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find relief from the first few doses and you will be surprised how quickly all your misery and suffering will end.

An original package of Croxone costs but a little at any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive money-back guarantee. There is no day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache or overcome urinary disorders.

Gum-Shoe Revenge Overtakes Fairest Clara for $140 Hug

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Charles Butz, who resides at the Hotel Tuma, 74 Turk street, was hauled by a strange woman last Wednesday. The hug cost him just $140. Therefore when he caught sight of the hugger last night he did a bit of gumshoe work and as the result Clara, a beautiful blonde, is booked at the city prison for grand larceny. Butz was entering his hotel last week when he claimed the woman accosted him. Before he could answer her query she had thrown her arms around his neck. He escaped from her only to discover, he declares, that his purse, containing $140, was missing. Last night as he was talking to Night Clerk Stillwell he observed the same woman in the doorway. He requested Stillwell to keep her in conversation while he summoned Patrolmen Whalen and Healey, who took her into custody.

neatcut avenue, when, toward midnight, the news of her husband's plight was taken her.

WIFE SKEPTICAL

"It cannot be true," she wailed. "Why, he was the best husband in the world. He couldn't do it and leave me and my family to starve."

Finally, convinced that there could be no mistake, the woman told her marriage to Hogue seven years ago in Kansas City, Mo. She was born and raised there, she said, and all her relatives live there at present. Hogue came from Sedalia, Mo., where his parents live.

Until a few weeks ago Hogue had employment as a railway conductor. She says she and her two young children are absolutely destitute. She is ill and without medicine or medical attention.

"Poor Jim must have been desperate to think of such a thing," said the wife, who late this evening left her home, saying he was going downtown. I did not notice that he was particularly disturbed, nor did I ask him where he was going.

When questioned at the Central Emergency hospital last night Hogue made the following statement:

"I worked for many years as a conductor and brakeman for the Santa Fe, and last summer was employed by that road as a switchman in the China Basin. I was let out in September following a row with one of the bosses.

GUN WAS DEAD MEXICAN'S

"Four years ago I was coroner and justice of the peace at Ash Forks, Ariz. The gun I used in holding up the train last night I got from the body of a dead Mexican in that place. 'We haven't had a cent of money in the house for the last ten days. I let up my mind to stick up that train and walked all the way to the entrance of the tunnel. I put the block signal system out of business by cutting the wires.

"There was nobody with me in the holdup. I never held up a train before."

That Hogue is the same man who on the night of April 24 held up and robbed the brakeman, conductor and express messenger on Southern Pacific passenger train No. 87 near the San Mateo county line was the belief expressed last night by P. J. Kindelon, chief special agent for the Southern Pacific.

"Both his description, which tallies exactly with that of the April 24 holdup, and the method by which the robber worked, strengthen this theory in my mind," said Kindelon. Matt Brady, a building contractor with offices in the Monarch building and living at 1599 Nineteenth avenue, was one of those robbed in the observation car by the bandit. Brady lost $50 in gold, but saved by a purse another $125 in gold which he carried in the same pocket.

In my trousers pocket I carried into the pocket and from the top of the pile picked two or three coins. They totaled just $50. These I handed to the bandit as if it were all the money I had.

"This all you got?" questioned the robber. I nodded in the affirmative.

EX-NEWSPAPERMAN'S STORY

W. Russell Cole of the Pacific Coast Casualty Company and former newspaperman gave the following account of the holdup:

"Four of us were seated on the rear platform of the observation car when the train came to a stop in the first tunnel. The others on the platform were Charles E. Temple of Chicago, T. J. Stephens of Los Angeles and Bacon Ganssle of Minneapolis. We were talking among ourselves when the holdup man climbed up over the railing on to the platform, and I think none of us gave any attention to him until he had gained the platform, supposing it was a flagman."

"He said nothing to us at first, but as we turned round he said: 'This is the real thing: come through quick or I'll kill every one of you.' He wore a black handkerchief tied around his face close up under his eyes and his hat was pulled down so that it was impossible to see what he looked like."

"Then a lady sitting just inside the car evidently noticed what was happening and gave the alarm. In the meantime we had all reassured ourselves and the holdup man kept continually threatening to shoot. He went through the car shouting to everyone to hold up their hands as he went through the door."

J. F. Goodwin, a business man of Santa Maria, who was in the car in which the holdup man worked, was knocked back into his seat by the bandit.

$1000 HIS LOSS

Thomas Stevens, owner of the San Jose baseball team, lost the principal owner of the Los Angeles team, lost $1000 in jewelry and cash.

Mrs. K. Doty of Greensburg, Wis., who was one of the passengers in the car, says the holdup man was careful not to address himself to any of the women passengers.

VISITORS COSTLY WHEN POLICE RAID LOTTERIES

Four alleged Chinese lottery houses were raided last night by Captain Charles Beck of the Oakland police force and several officers of the department. Seventeen arrests were made and $1350 was deposited as bail for the captives. Ah Leon was arrested as a seller of tickets and Albert Kallio as a visitor, at 281

UNITED RADICALS LEAD IN CHAMBER

Outnumber Other Factions in French Deputies; What Balancing Shows.

PARIS, May 12.—As a result of the second balloting for members of the Chamber of Deputies, the new Chamber will be composed about as follows:

Extreme Socialists, 102; Independent and Republican Socialists, 30; United Radicals, 138; Independent Radicals and Republicans of the left, 102; Democratic allegiance, 100; Progressives and Federated Republicans, 54; National Liberals, 34; Right, composed of Royalists and Extreme Conservatives, 24; Independents, 16.

Returns have not been received from two districts.

The Chamber, realizing the position of the deputies according to their pre-election declarations, places 203 out of the 502 members as in favor of the three years' term.

nated as against such service or doubtful, 275 members for the income tax and 353 for proportional representation. All agree that the French parliament is about to enter upon an exceptionally critical period. Interest centers on the declaration of policy which Premier Doumergue will make in answer to the interpellation which follows the election of officers.

The entire situation turns on the three years' military service.

WEALTHY RANCHER, 79 GETS LICENSE TO WED

MARTINEZ, May 12.—John R. Byer, aged rancher, pioneer of Antioch, and Mary R. Knecht of Fresno, procured a marriage license yesterday and announced their intention of being married at Antioch today.

Byer is an eccentric character well known at Antioch. He is 79 years old and reputed to be wealthy. The bridge gave her age 45 years. A few years ago Byer was involved in an affair of the heart with a widow of this city, who threatened to sue him for breach of promise. He decided $50,000 worth of property to his six children, including A. F. Byer and Virgil Byer of Antioch and Mrs. Ren Douglas of Oakley, to prevent the woman from getting it. He settled her claims by a payment of $2500 and his children deeded his property back to him.

Subsequently Byer fell ill, and, believing that his time was failing, he deeded his property to his son, A. F. Byer, in trust. He has lately brought suit for the recovery of title to this property from his son, claiming that he has fully recovered his mental faculties.

CAPT. WEST'S NAME IS DROPPED FROM ROLLS

SEATTLE, May 12.—Captain Ernest E. West, United States marine corps, was formally dismissed from the service at the Puget Sound navy yard on receipt of orders from the secretary of the navy, who approved the verdict of the court martial which found West guilty of intoxication and scandalous conduct.

This was West's third conviction, the charge in each case being intoxication and misconduct. West is a native of Georgia, a graduate of the naval academy, and was once considered one of the most brilliant officers in the marine corps.

Acute Articular Rheumatism

Relieved by Anti-Kamnia Tablets

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been found which is a specific in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have not been given a trial. In the treatment of this disease, the most successful drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. S. Schmitz expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that Anti-Kamnia Tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unassisted in lumbago, neuritis and all pain. Ask for A-K Tablets.

P. S. For Eczema and Skin Diseases, use A-K Salve.

HILLIARD BRINGS THRILLS—AND ART

"The Argyle Case," Well Acted Modern Play at the Macdonough.

Clearing the memory of Robert Hilliard's previous and malodorous vehicle, "A Fool There Was," "The Argyle Case" comes up like a breath of fresh air. Hilliard brings to the Macdonough a clean thrill, thoroughly melodramatic, speedily acted, rich in the necessary novelty that dramatists are wont to hunt over the footlights.

Thrills are plentiful. Asche Kerton, the detective, combines in his work the scientific method of the big detective agencies of today—all dressed in their most sensational garb for the effect. And the deductive method he takes in the fields of detective literature. Hilliard, in this part, has one of the best vehicles he has ever presented.

after sensation, but it is not a work to be popularly termed a "thriller." It's a case where sensationalism and art are combined. The result is more than worth seeing.

The murder of an old millionaire by a gang of counterfeiters, and a search in which the detectives suspect first one and then another of his household, is the heart of the plot, while complication after complication arises. Then the detective falls in love with the murdered man's stepdaughter, a surprise, and at last, by means of dictaphones and other instruments used nowadays in detective work, the mystery is cleared.

ARTISTS ALL.

Hilliard, in his offering, is supported by as clever a company as was ever assembled for such a play. Every man and woman in the cast is a true artist and fits his or her part perfectly. This, perhaps, serves to make the piece as convincing as it is. Hilliard, magnetic, keen and indefatigable, presents an interesting stage picture. W. T. Clark, as "Colt," the government agent in the case, does some clever acting. Miss Olive Oliver as "Mrs. Kreisler," one of the central figures in the case, is given opportunity for several clever pieces of work, and Miss Stella Archer, as the suspected stepdaughter with whom the detective falls in love, is charming.

Harvey Clark, as Bruce Argyle, son of the murdered man, has several excellent opportunities which he makes the most of in the play, and Edwin Holland as the family lawyer, also appears in several crucial scenes.

Gustav Von Seyffert, Charles Morrell and William Raymond, as Dr. Frederick Kreisler, and his assistant counterfeiters, are all finished actors whose work is convincing and adds considerably to the drama.

The piece is well staged, and abounds in surprises. The scene of a Maxim silencer on a pistol is shown for the first time on a stage. An inside glimpse is given into the workings of a detective agency, a few shocks are administered and the audience is kept guessing until the last moment. "The Argyle Case" will play tonight and tomorrow night, with matinee tomorrow.

NEW COAL BARGES TO BE USED AT LA PLAYA

SAN DIEGO, May 12.—Four 100-ton steel coal barges, now under construction at the Puget Sound navy yard, will be brought here early next month for use at the government coaling station at La Playa, according to word last night brought here by the United States gunboat Vicksburg. The barges will be used in expediting the coaling of the warships now in Mexican waters. The Vicksburg left last night for Mazatlan, Mexico.

Radiograms received yesterday announced that the United States destroyers Erebo and Perry are now en route from Mexican waters to San Diego with mail and refugees. No word has been received from the American steamer Seisana, but the ship was expected to reach San Diego early today with a number of refugees.

JERSEY MAN THREATENS PRESIDENT; RELEASED

NEWARK, N. J., May 11.—United States Judge Bellstah today released under suspended sentence Samuel E. Barr, indicted recently on a charge of sending a threatening letter to President Wilson. Barr, in his communication, was said to have expressed his disapproval of the President's Panama canal toll policy.

Mid-season Fashion Show in the Capwell Roof Garden

You Are Cordially Invited to Attend

In keeping with the spirit of progress that dominates CAPWELL'S, and taking advantage of the unrivalled facilities this store possesses in its Italian Roof Garden and in Oakland's marvelous climate, we have planned an outdoor Fashion Show which will portray the latest mid-season fashions in

Dresses for Morning and Afternoon Wear at Home or at the Summer Resort—Millinery for All Occasions; Parasols, Blouses, Accessories, Beach, Outdoor and Mountain Apparel

The display will take place in the Roof Garden

Tomorrow, Thursday and Friday Both Mornings and Afternoons

In the mornings from 10:30 to 12. Afternoons from 2:30 to 4

Beautiful and graceful models will exhibit these garments amid appropriate settings

The arrangements are such that everybody can have an unobstructed view. A generous allotment of seats has been provided. Music will be a feature of both the morning and afternoon exhibitions and our Restaurant adjoining the garden will serve a special luncheon to those who wish to remain for shopping between the hours of the exhibition.

On all the floors of the establishment special displays of mid-summer merchandise will be made. As CAPWELL'S Roof Garden, one of Oakland's show places, will be the center of attraction on these days, plan to meet your friends and neighbors here.

The attendance at this show will in all probability tax the elevators to their fullest capacity, and we ask your indulgence should the service not be as prompt as you or ourselves could desire.

OLD OIL WELL HAS BECOME GUSHER

Flow Estimated at 10,000 Barrels a Day; Has Tremendous Pressure.

Maricopa, May 12.—The old Metropolitan well of the Lakeview Number 3 Oil Company, on the Maricopa flat, came in as a gusher on Sunday evening at 6:15 o'clock, with a flow estimated at 10,000 barrels per day. The well has a tremendous gas pressure and resembles the other gushers brought in in that finished at a depth of 2013 feet by Superintendent Walter J. Barnhart.

Yosemite, May 12.—"Chris" Jorgensen, the well-known landscape painter, famous for his interpretations of the great scenery of the West, is proving the truth of Charles Lamb's celebrated bon mot, "The finest thing in the world is to do a good deed by stealth and then be found out." The artist's friends have just caught him in the act of endowing the youthful proprietor of a newly established meat market in Yosemite valley with one of his masterpieces in oil as a sign for his butcher shop.

Fresno, May 12.—Examination of the condition of the peach crop all over the county has been completed, and shows that the crop will be small.

At Selma, Reedley and Perlier the crop will be about 80 or 75 per cent of normal and 50 per cent in other parts of the county. Heavy frosts rotted the peaches and the crop is the poorest since the hardest hit.

Stockton, May 12.—Announcement was made today that the League of California Municipalities will hold its next meeting in this city, the exact date to be decided upon later. Stockton was selected as the place for the next meeting Saturday at San Jose, when a special meeting of the league was held. Elaborate preparations will be made to entertain the visitors by Mayor Reubenstien and members of the city council.

ALIEN HAS SEAT IN STATE LEGISLATURE

DENVER, May 11.—John Redmond Williams, of Denver, a member of the Colorado legislature, who served through the term of 1913 and is now holding a seat, did not secure final naturalization papers until January 26, 1914, it became known today.

Williams said he only recently learned that he was not a citizen of the United States when nominated for office. It is not believed laws enacted with his vote will be affected.

CHAMBER ADOPTS HARBOR REPORT

Council is Urged to Call Conference for Discussion of Port Plan.

Endorsing the movement for the immediate utilization of such portions of the municipal water front improvements as have been completed, and the administration of port affairs by a special commission, the board of directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce this morning adopted the report of the special committee on harbor affairs by unanimous vote.

As a result of their action, a conference will be called in the near future at which the city officials and representatives of the various governmental organizations will reach an agreement for prompt action along the lines outlined. The feature of the report, which was the rivers and harbors committee, is the recommendation by the city council of a commission of three men who shall have as full and unrestricted powers as the law can confer and who shall serve without compensation. These commissioners will have power to appoint a superintendent of the port as their executive officer.

The report as adopted is as follows:

RECOMMEND PLAN.

"Your committee appointed to consider reports on conditions of the municipal harbor and to investigate the general recommendations as to plan for management of the Oakland harbor with suggestions as to the execution of the plan, and to report to the city council the following recommendations:

"That a general plan of government of the port of Oakland and future management of the business of the municipal and other wharves be submitted to the Oakland city government and its adoption be requested.

"That the port government and management of the business in the harbor and on the wharves be placed in the hands of three commissioners to be appointed by the mayor and council of the city of Oakland. These commissioners to serve without pay and have full and complete powers as the law will permit to confer upon them.

"The commissioners are to have the power to appoint a superintendent or manager of the port who will be their executive in charge of the execution of all plans and policies adopted and agreed upon by said commissioners in relation to the harbor and wharves, docks and appurtenances thereto.

PURPOSE OF CHANGE.

"The obligation imposed upon the port commissioners and their appointees and employees being to govern and manage the harbor, wharves, docks and appurtenances so as to develop the shipping business to the largest volume and highest efficiency in its relation to, and as a vital factor in, the general business prosperity of the community.

"The superintendent or manager to be appointed by the commissioners is to be required to pay special attention to the development of traffic for the wharves and docks and to the general business of the port.

"It is the purpose of this committee that the Oakland municipal government should be expeditiously enabled to do and perform certain acts which are essential to the use and operation of wharves and docks already completed and partially completed by the Oakland municipal government.

QUAY WORK.

"Provision of additional dredge, be contract, for dredging in front of the quay wall, in order that this work may be expedited, building of railroad tracks along the quay wall, providing wharves and street approaches thereto, construction of such sheds as are needed for protection and unloading of cargo, and construction of so much of the municipal and other wharves on the Oakland water front with each other and with railroad main lines and industrial tracks in the Oakland district.

"The construction of needed approaches to the apron of the wharf, with shed or sheds as are needed, there to make these wharves available for use.

"Your committee recommends that a conference be called at an early day, at which this committee with representatives from the progress and prosperity committee and the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the mayor and other city officials, the matters in this report set out to the end that an agreement in accordance with the above recommendations may be arrived at."

A Hint for Coming Maternity

In a little book designed for expectant mothers more complete instruction is given in the use of "Mother's Friend."

This is an external embrocation applied to the abdominal muscles for the purpose of relieving the strain on ligaments, cords and tendons.

It serves to ease the mind, indirectly has a most beneficial effect upon the nervous system and thousands of women have delightedly told how they were free of nausea, had no morning sickness and went through the ordeal with most remarkable success.

"Mother's Friend" has been growing in popular favor for more than forty years. In almost every community are grandmothers who used it themselves, their daughters have used it and they certainly must know what a blessing it is when they recommend it so warmly. It is used very successfully to prevent caking of breasts.

"Mother's Friend" has been prepared in the laboratory of Bradford Regulator Co., 304 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for more than two generations and can be had of almost any druggist from coast to coast. Write to-day for the little book.

WILL NOT OPEN STREET AS URGED

Livingston Project Opposed by Taxpayers, Reports Baccus.

Street matters and routine business occupied the session of the city council today for the first time in nearly two months. He made an extended tour of the East during this time.

In answer to the suggestion of the harbor development committee of the Commercial Club urging the extension of Livingston street and Twenty-third avenue to give a better outlet to north and east, Commissioner of Streets W. J. Baccus declared that the matter was taken up a year ago and in view of protests from residents the matter was dropped. He stated that the people of the district would oppose it and that trouble would result.

Experience has taught me that education of the people is necessary of the work and obtaining a majority position is well, he declared. The matter was tabled without action.

ADVERSE REPORT FILED.

Adverse report was rendered on the petition of the Vernon Rock & Ice Co. for electrolines in the district, in view of the expense attached.

Methodists Reject New Territory Plan

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 12.—Two new annual conferences, to be known as the "Oklahoma border conference" and "the Central Mexican conference," were created and a proposal to establish an Indian conference, to have jurisdiction over the extreme Western states, was rejected at yesterday's session of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, meeting here in quadrangular session. A resolution was adopted urging the necessity of additional chaplains in the United States army and navy.

ALAMEDA COMMISSION TO ARRANGE SPACE AT FAIR

Members of the Alameda county exposition commission will meet Friday in San Francisco with the central counties committee for the discussion of details in regard to the arrangement of floor space in the California building, which they will occupy in common. Designs for a facade are to be submitted, each county presenting one, from which a choice will be made. Other matters of exhibit space and co-operative decoration will be discussed.

FOUR LADS OVERLOOK CURFEW; POLICE ACT

The curfew law last night worked for four unwary youngsters who thought it fun to roam the streets after dark. They were picked up by a policeman at Seventh and Adeline streets, and delivered at the Detention Home as a runaway. James Parolin, Emil Heune and Albert Heune were arrested by Corporal Brock. They were returned to their parents. The ages of the lads ranged from 14 to 19 years.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to eating food which is not suited to the stomach. Whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature or which by chemical action in the stomach produces acids. The most common offenders are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well-fed body. For the purpose of these few words, I am assuming that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like. In moderate amount, taking immediately afterward a teaspoonful of blunderbuss magenta. In a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Blunderbuss magenta is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no ill-effects on the stomach, but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I do not believe in the use of blunderbuss magenta. It is a food, and a food should be used instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little blunderbuss magenta from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the blunderbuss magenta as directed above, and see if I'm not right."

HOKE SMITH AIRS VIEWS ON TOLLS

Tells Senate He Will Vote for Repeal of Clause Granting Americans Exemption.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia today championed repeal of the clause in the Panama canal act granting exemption of tolls to American vessels.

"Traffic from foreign countries will be unloaded at ports of the United States to be immediately loaded in a coastwise vessel, or to pass through the canal for the opposite coast of the United States, thus in reality carrying through the canal foreign traffic on the coastwise vessels without paying tolls."

Reviewing the history of the Panama legislation and quoting from a speech credited to former President Taft, early this year, the Senator said:

CORRECTS TAFT'S IMPRESSION.

"Taft was wrong in supposing that the idea of Democratic senators and congressmen in voting to free the coastwise trade from tolls was to give a subsidy to our coastwise ships. Had they known that it was necessary under the treaty to fix the tolls at a rate with estimated payment of tolls by the coastwise vessels, thus making the freedom of the coastwise vessels from paying tolls a clear subsidy, Democrats would not have disregarded their party platform and the established principle of their party by voting for this subsidy."

CONSTRUCTS "OTHER DIFFICULTIES."

Termination of the treaty, he asserted, would compel us to give up the canal unless we abandoned our attitude as a champion of nation and resorted alone to battleship and brute force to keep the property.

Outlining the interests which Canada and the countries of South America had in the canal, the Senator said:

"When the President in his message referred to 'other difficulties' to be caused by the passage of the canal, he was referring to the canal through the straits, through the canal without charge, while I do not speak ex-cathedra, I may well conceive that he had in view our general relations with our neighbors in America, and not that many have suggested, some ulterior purpose in connection with the government of Great Britain."

TWO ARE ARRESTED FOLLOWING FIST FIGHT

Frank Johnson, laborer; Charles Williams, millhand, and Jesse Page, lineman, were arrested early this morning as a result of a fist fight that took place at Thirteenth avenue and Patroman Curran, hearing the noise of the fight, took the men into custody. They are booked on charges of disturbing the peace. Investigation by Lieutenant William Wood disclosed the fact that Page had acted in self-defense and he was ordered released on his own recognizance. The charge against Johnson and Williams was dismissed by the Police Court this morning, and the other two were held for examination.

Holding Company Is Defended as Utility

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Protest against the holding companies' prohibition in the administration anti-trust bills were heard today by the Senate interstate commerce committee. Bernard Flexner, representing the Middle West Lumber Company, who public service companies in California, made the principal argument against the holding company feature. He said holding companies made public service cheaper and insured public service in small cities and towns, which, without such a financial device, would be left unserved.

PETERSEN WANTS MORE POLICEMEN

Fifty Additional Men Declared to Be Needed by the Department.

Fifty more men for the Oakland police department are needed at once, according to Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen, who will, it is announced, shortly make a request to Commissioner F. C. Turner, of the department of public health and safety, for this addition to the force. The present strength is 222 men.

During the past few weeks requests for additional policemen have come into the chief's office, and these he cannot fill without hampering his work. He is now more than ever in need of the department.

clubs for men in their districts. The increased force as contemplated by the chief, The Vernon Rock Ridge Club, the Dennison Club and others have filed requests for additional patrolmen in their neighborhoods.

The increase in the force is practically all that the chief will ask of the city this year, it is declared. He has the Melrose station, the Northern station, and with the exception of a needed Lakeview station, is well equipped. Commissioner Turner will take up the matter with the council after passing on the needs of the first department. Several improvements and increases have been asked by Fire Chief N. A. Ball.

VARIETY IN SCHEME ACRES WILL BLOOM

Forty-seven miles of flowers will grace Oakland's streets in one year from the present. Here is the plan:

6 miles Highland drive, beginning at Hotel Oakland and ending at Rockridge; planted in red geraniums.

7 miles Foothill boulevard; planted in California poppies with blue lupins scattered on adjoining property.

2 miles Broadway and College avenue; planted in petunia nana and Shirley poppies, with corn flowers scattered on adjoining property.

2 miles Grove street, planted in pink geranium.

2 miles Telegraph avenue; planted in godetia.

1/2 miles Fruitvale avenue; planted in gazania and marigold.

1 mile Sixteenth street; planted in dwarf nasturtium. Vacant lots planted in Shirley poppies and sweet peas. Banks and vacant lots planted in live plant and calla lilies.

carried out. A sub-committee appointed on street beautification numbering Oscar Prager, Fred Seuberg and George B. Furness prepared the details of the plan given above which has received the approval and endorsement of the larger body. Miss Bessie J. Wood is chairman of the executive committee.

CHECKER CHAMPION PLAYS HERE TONIGHT

Joseph Davis, checker champion of the United States, will play against a picked team of twenty players tonight in the lobby of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., taking one side in twenty games. The players chosen to oppose the champion are Professors H. H. Sears and J. C. Lewis, W. Buchanan, J. G. Larson, J. H. Crutenden Jr., W. R. Brown, C. M. Rogers, A. E. Williams, George N. Browning, J. forty-three school districts with the school houses as the unit and the improvement and beautification of the localities as the supervisors. Twenty thousand school children are being organized into companions of garden soldiers will be determined by their parents and teachers, members of fifty-five improvement clubs, thirty-two women's organizations, nineteen civic clubs, the real estate association, school board, playground commission, park board and police department.

SCHEME IS DEFINITE.
Each district will be given a list of common, hardy flowers, requiring little water, to be planted between sidewalk and curb, with the suggestion that a definite scheme be carried out. Each district will be given a list of plants or seeds from its own garden for the city beautification. The school house will be the clearing house. It is particularly desired that present growths are not disturbed. The summer will be devoted to cleaning up and making the soil ready for the early fall planting.

The first work along the general clean-up line was begun last week when formal notice was sent to the custodians of the various school grounds by the board of education, calling attention to the rules which were directed toward growths of weeds and accumulations of rubbish. Among those who are taking an active part in the general board with Miss Wood are A. S. Lavenson, Dr. A. S. Kelley, Fred Seuberg, George B. Furness, George E. Dickie, A. C. Barker, Oscar Prager, A. ## TAXPAYERS' COLUMN

All communications to the Editor of THE TRIBUNE must bear the signature and address of the writer.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Mr. Spooner reiterates in rejoinder to my protest against compelling the city government to create an office not authorized by the charter, under threat that unless this is done the construction of the auditorium will be prevented by a strike. Mr. Spooner says that the creation of this unnecessary office is in order to prevent graft in the erection of the building. As only the members of the city government could do this, the Mayor and Commissioners will feel flattered by Mr. Spooner's statement that they have to appoint an inspector to keep them from robbing the people in the erection of a public building.

The fact is that the demand for the creation of a $7 a day sinecure is a holding-up and nothing more.

As for Mr. Spooner, his language is that of the dynamiter and public enemy. He goes far afield to advise General Oles, who is a soldier and patriot, whom a regiment of Spooners could not scare.

ECONOMIES OF TOLL QUESTION.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The editorial which I enclosed from your issue of May 1, is in point with my article, "The Panama Canal Toll and the Question of 'Case and Comment,'" a copy of which I mailed to you yesterday from New York. I appreciate the fact that the committee as well as Mr. Cochran but the committee already having my constitutional point in a telegram which I had sent to Senator Perkins, I presented in the economic side of the question. Under another cover I send this presentation today to you.

It was the only complete presentation of the economics of the toll question put before the committee and you will like to find a great deal in it worth your publication as information to California people.

My return to your editorial on Mr. Cochran's argument, I believe that the supreme court has already held what Mr. Cochran argued to, to my mind, the most brilliant address to the committee. My article (in Case and Comment) takes up the toll question where Mr. Cochran left off and I think you will find it particularly interesting reading with my economic argument. Your truly,

RUSSELL L. DUNN.

"CHOLLY" AND "SOLLY"

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In the interesting article entitled "Progressive Assailant," your historian seems to have overlooked facts of great historical importance. The "Solly" (the "Cholly" the Magnificent) well known over the entire country (Europe) until checked by the armies of Charles Martel. Soliman was born not later than 694 (according to some historians 688). Assuming that he died at the age of 100, he was 100 years old at the time of the "Solly" at his first opportunity, the very year that "Solly" became sultan, "Cholly" must have been at least 816 years old at the time.

Now at 816 years of age modern fighters are considered decidedly passé by the best authorities on sports. So that fact constitutes "Cholly" one of the best little scappers the world has produced, and in a class by himself, and I am surprised that your historian has not laid more stress on this fact.

Again, your historian says that "Solly" planned the star and crescent of Mohammedism in Europe. Spain is commonly and vulgarly considered a part of Mohammedism. It is not.

"Solly" was even thought of, so that "Solly" was rather late in the season of it. The "Cholly" must have been a large young historian in one of the best little "makers of history." I have run across in some time. But is there no little school in Oakland or San Francisco which "Cholly" after a hard day's work in a newspaper office?

Yours truly,

ADOLPH BRUENN.

SOUTHRON BUYS GUNBOAT MANILA

New Orleans Man Becomes the Owner of Prison Ship of the Navy.

MARE ISLAND, May 12.—D. W. Strong of New Orleans was a visitor at the navy yard today and called upon several of the station officials. Strong has purchased the historical Spanish gunboat Manila, which up to a year ago was used as a prison ship by the naval authorities. The Manila was captured by Uncle Sam's ships in the Philippines in 1898 and was brought to Mare Island soon after the war with Spain was over.

Strong paid $700 for the Manila, which is considered quite a big price for the old Spanish-American war prize. The gunboat was built in 1880 and has been in the navy for 34 years. She will be towed off the flats by one of the yard tugs and delivered to Mr. Strong some time this week, according to his present plans. The new owner will have the gunboat towed to San Francisco, where she will be repaired and it is quite likely that he will keep her at San Francisco during 1915 as a Panama-Pacific exposition attraction. Later on Mr. Strong will have the Manila taken through the Panama canal and on her arrival at New Orleans she will be used in the West Indies trade.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR ANSWERS CALL

VALLEJO, May 12.—Guy K. Butler, noted veteran of the civil war, who had made his home at 215 Illinois street in this city for many years, passed away at the State Veterans' Home at Yountville last night after a long illness, during which time he had endured much suffering with remarkable patience. Deceased was a native of Vermont and besides his wife is survived by four children, namely: C. W. Butler of San Francisco, Paul J. and Vina of Vallejo, and Leon W. Butler of Willows, Cal.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, May 12.—Owing to rush orders being received from Washington, D. C., late Saturday night the tug Ironhorse, with the divers P-3 and H-3 in tow, left at 6 o'clock yesterday morning for San Pedro.

When the repairs on the cruiser Marblehead, completed under the war emergency, will be ordered to leave the Mexican coast, but instead will be returned to the naval reserve at San Francisco and stationed at Sausalito.

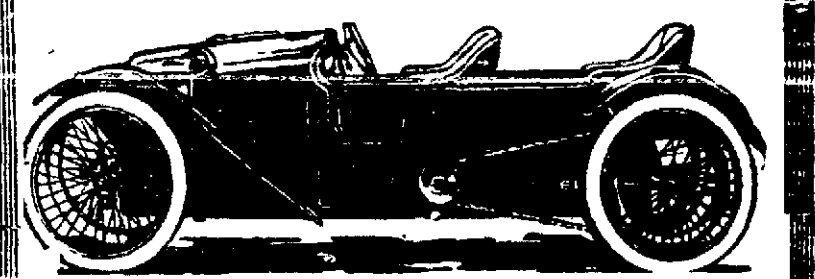

The hull department officers were forced to put sailors at work on the revenue cutter McCullough so as to get the vessel away from Mare Island on Wednesday, May 20. The McCullough is being thoroughly overhauled and is to leave San Francisco for Alaska the latter part of the month.

Inspector George Brown Jr., U. S. N., was kept busy receiving congratulations of the yard officers today as he received his commission this morning as pay inspector.

All of the repairs have been completed on the navy tug Canadilla and the

CONFERENCE CONSIDERS FAULTS OF DEMOCRACY

NEW YORK, May 12.—The relation of the University to the State, the upbuilding of governmental administration and the betterment of public service in general were the important subjects scheduled for discussion today when a conference called by Mayor Mitchell of New York City, convened here. The conference is being held today and tomorrow under the auspices of the Committee on Practical Training for Public Service of the American Political Science Association. Some of the subjects which will be discussed are: The greatest need of American democracy, the training needed for the positions of high school principals, normal school president and president of a publicly supported university; public service activities of universities; practical training for public service; should universities give credit for work in governmental bureaus as outlined by the Committee of Practical Training for Public Service; the national university.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

Thomas Ambrose, an engineer living at 1332 Ninth street, was struck by an electric train at Melrose station last night, sustaining severe bruises and a strained back. He was treated at the Emergency hospital.

AGED MAN MISSING

Relatives of Charles M. Clement, an aged man who arrived in Oakland some weeks ago from Chicago on a visit, have asked the police to search for him. The man left his home, 338 Market street, last night. He had a ticket to Chicago in his pocket, and it is believed that he may have taken a train home. The man is 77 years of age and when last seen was attired in a blue suit, tan shoes and soft hat. The detective department is investigating.

The Joy of Dancing Exercise.

Very few women or men seem to care to lounge or get dancing exercise unless they are sure the freedom from aches and pains that Allen's Foot-Powder, the authentic powder to be shaken into the shoes, will give them. So the dance to hold dancing parties has become almost a daily and hourly necessity in every community. The sale of Allen's Foot-Powder, so the Druggists report, has reached the high-water mark. Let Us Bid for This Convention.

October 29th of this year will witness a notable gathering at Winsted, Connecticut, when the Bald-Head Club of America will meet in annual session. This organization numbers more than four thousand, a mighty array of smooth domes. It has only been in existence two years, but since its founding it has advanced by leaps and bounds and its future appears as bright as the shiniest think tank of its most noted member, George W. Sill, a Californian, resident in the Pajaro valley, apple-buyer, apple-seller and general, all around good fellow.

It is a unique association with a beneficent object. Like other fraternities it requires certain specifications of character and physical attainment—if loss of hair can be considered an attainment—and demands that a candidate shall be a man of morals, and the owner of "a bald spot not less than three inches in diameter." Its further purpose is to promote social and fraternal relations between bald heads and cultivate sympathy for men who have hair."

We urge the Commercial Club to make a special effort to secure the annual gathering of this society in 1915 for many reasons. Prominent among these is the fact that bald-headed men are more than ordinarily intelligent. Bald-headed men are well-balanced. It is said that statistics disclose that no bald-headed man was ever an inmate of an insane asylum. Of course there may be something said by way of explanation. Maniacs tear their hair and when a man has no hair to tear, what's the use of going crazy?

The bald-headed man, however, is always in the forefront. If you don't believe it, attend the next show that strikes town with a full chorus and take a glance, or "a slant," as the boys say, at the first two or three rows in the immediate propinquity of the orchestra. Or attend a banquet given by a great organization and note who are the leading speakers. In each of the instances alluded to it will be found that the bald-headed man is the premier. He is the witty fellow. He is also the man who does things. Take Rockefeller for example. John D. has done more things than anyone, although John could not join this fraternity because he covers his polished head-piece with a toque.

History tells us that all the truly great were bald-headed. Socrates, who died like a philosopher, was bald-headed; so was Pliny the elder and Archimedes. Julius Caesar could have qualified for membership in this league the day he crossed the Rubicon. Charles Martel, the Hammer of Gaul, had little hair when he met the Saracens at Tours. Voltaire was hairless and so also was Volney.

Wherever he has been and in whatever sphere of life he has been stationed the bald-headed man has made good. Hairless men are seldom poverty-stricken or ill-tempered. The only bald-headed man who showed signs of peevishness was Elisha, but the children nagged him until he could not stand it longer, so he ordered up the two she-bears and who can blame him?

Because of his history and the part he has played in the progress of the world, we reiterate that the powers that be should make an effort to secure this gathering during the year 1915. It will add to the city's prestige, put us on the map in large capitals and in the light of the achievements of bald-headed men written in the book of time will doubtless redound to the financial benefit of the east bay region.

Since the purchase of the San Jose Times-Star by a company headed by Richard Cannon, formerly city editor of the Portland Telegram, and the installation of James S. Tyler, previously connected with THE TRIBUNE, as managing editor, the paper is going ahead at a rapid pace. Its news features are displayed in a manner calculated to attract, its local stories are well written and in all respects it is a live, up-to-date paper. The Times-Star has seen many stormy days. Previously conducted as the personal organ of an individual it has changed to an independent position and under the new policy inaugurated will take its place as a factor in the development of the great Santa Clara Valley, in which it has a magnificent field.

The Progress and Prosperity Committee of Oakland favors the completion of the auditorium. So also does every well wisher of the east bay metropolis.

The announcement that Rye headquarters has been opened in Nashville is said to cause such a rush to support the Bourbon candidate for governor that steen janitors were required to hold back the crowds.

"Weakley Leaders Strong for Rye" says the Nashville Tennessean. Natural paradox considering the locality.

The "dry" navy appears to have won a victory over the "wet" Huerta.

It is fair to presume that Carranza thinks he is standing at Armageddon.

Someway we cannot reconcile ourselves to the thought that Huerta gave his soldiers the order to stand by the water works.

Senator Poindexter wants Congress to give Dr. Cook $500 and a medal for discovering the North Pole. This may be the proper thing to do, but who will undertake the task of discovering Dr. Cook?

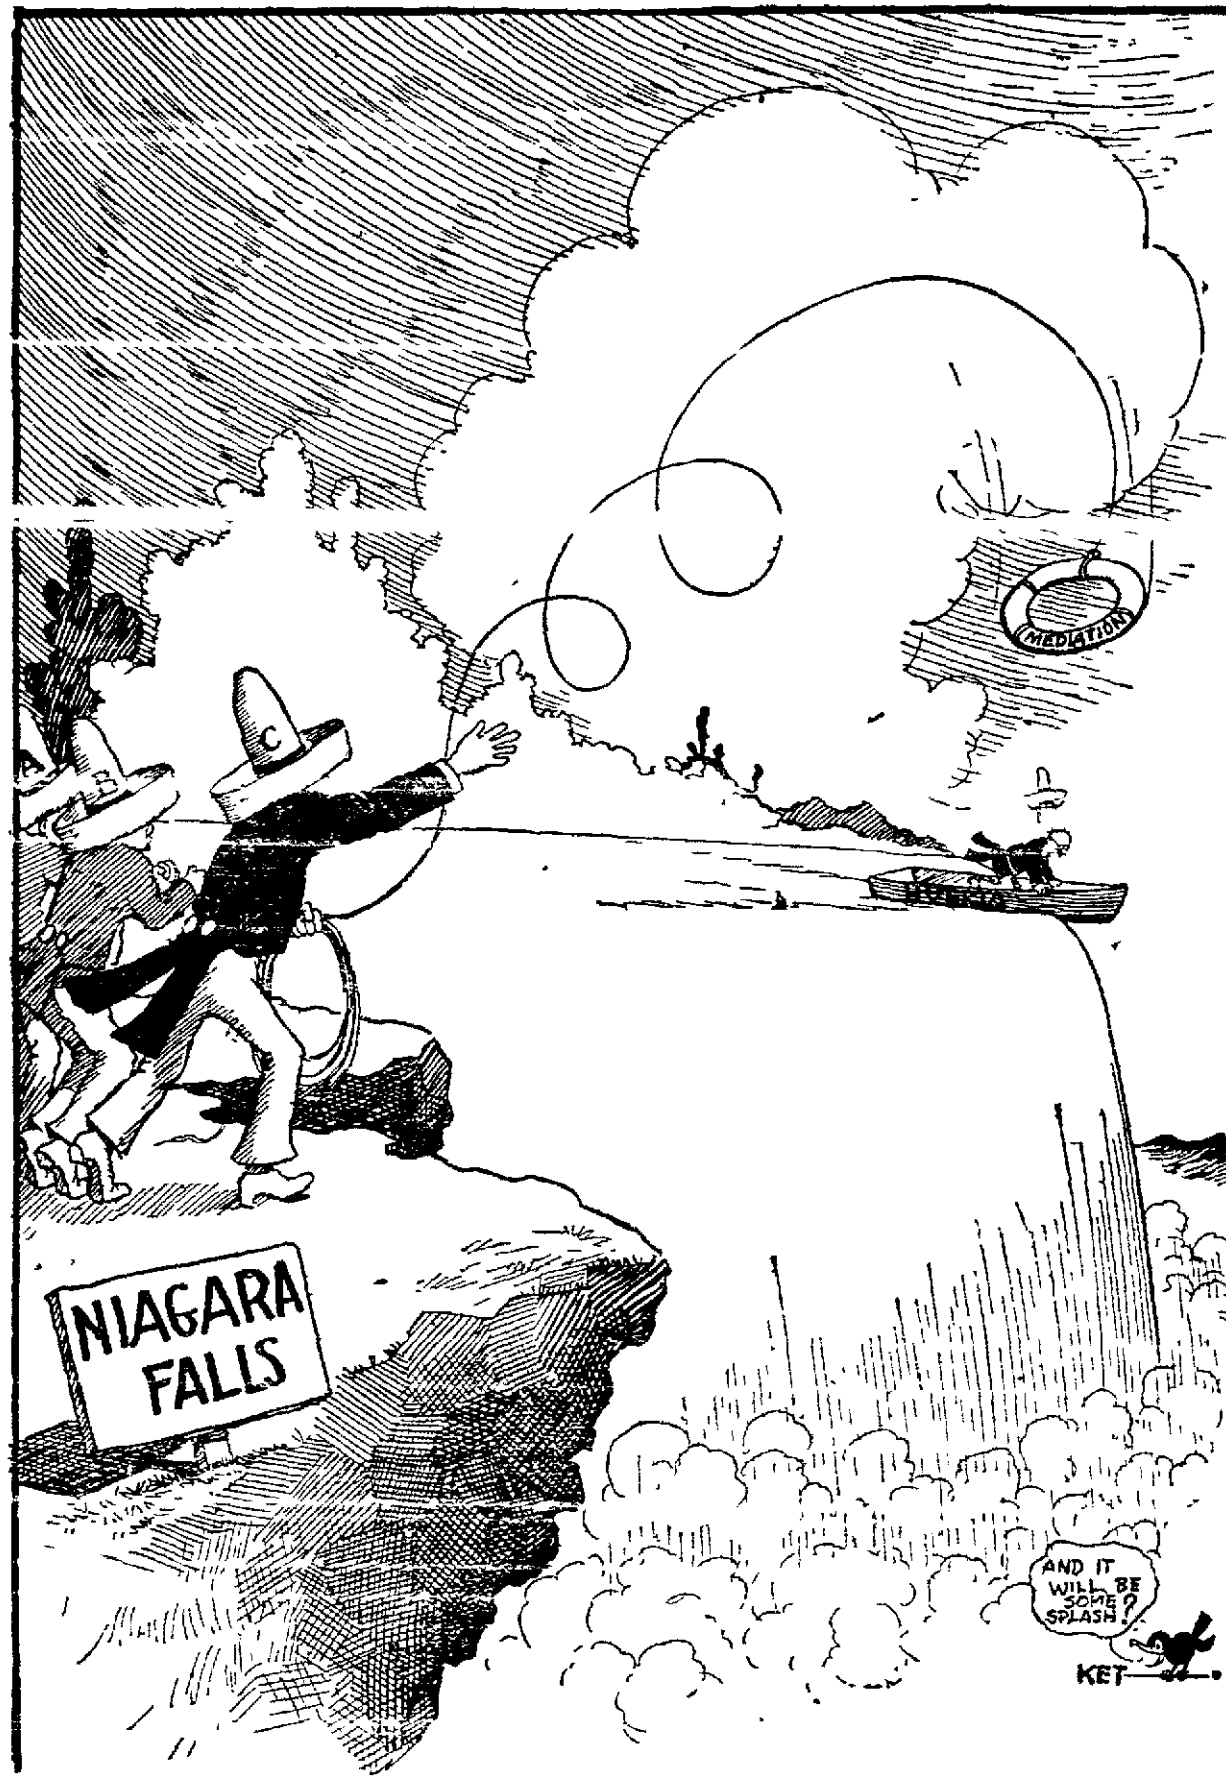

Los Angeles Votes Bonds for Water.

Los Angeles has voted the $6,500,000 additional bonds for the completion of its water system by adding a light and power plant, making the total cost more than $41,000,000. Since the plan was first suggested to bring water from the Owens river into the city the citizens have not hesitated to vote the necessary amounts for making the project a successful one.

Los Angeles was planning for the future as well as the present in this great work. The town is growing rapidly and an adequate water supply was an absolute necessity. So this great project was authorized.

In considering the proposition for a municipal water system in the east bay metropolitan district, the voters of the municipalities concerned will do well to note the example set by the southern metropolis.

HIS LAST CHANCE

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

Why Shouldn't Every One Have a Vacation?

These be nice spring days when a fellow has that "itchy feeling." Wants to take off his shoes and chase around barefooted on newly-plowed ground, visit the rural districts and listen to the birdies carol their songs of praise while he lies under a tree and little ants do foot races up the inside of his trousers; has a desire almost overwhelming to cast a fly on the shady side of the dark pool and obtain that delightful sensation in his arm that is caused only by a "strike." There's a yearning for the pipe of the qual, for a sight of the cotton-tail making love to his mate, for the chatter of the squirrel plighting his troth to the lady of his choice, for the verdure on the landscape, the beauty and perfume of the flowers, for the scent of all nature in the nostril, for the hum of the bee as he seeks honey from blossom to blossom, for all the goodness that appertains to the advent of the most delightful season of all the year.

But do we take it? Not on your life, Horatio. We draw a long breath or two and say we will at that indefinite period known as "one of these days," and hump ourselves to new tasks. There is this deal to be closed and that option to secure. The house demands our services in new fields of activity that the market for the product may be extended. We have this new customer on our hands and his trade must be secured, no matter if all the trout in the brook are left untouched. Leave business! Perish the thought!

But meantime we are shortening our days, dying sooner than we should and absolutely robbing our fellow men of a valuable asset in our personalities by refraining from enjoying vacations. A month of rest adds five years to one's usefulness. A four weeks' ramble in the hills is a rejuvenation. Men and women go stale when confined to one occupation too long. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" has as much wisdom in its words as the best proverb Solomon ever penned.

It would be an investment for every employer to give each of his employees a month's vacation in every year. They would come back to work with new thoughts, new ideas, new corpuscles in their blood, new flesh on their bones. By the same token it would not hurt the employer to take a rest himself.

Humanity does not get enough out of life. In the hurry and the worry of business it forgets its duty to itself, which is to live as long as possible and do as much good as possible. The vacation will go a long ways toward solving the problems of existence.

The Chattanooga Times remarks that Vera Cruz is well Fletcherized. Wonder if that fellow is alluding to the habit of thorough cleaning?

Up to date the march of the Coxe army on Washington has not been marred by any stops at recruiting offices for volunteers to Mexico.

The latest plan of the English militants is not to kiss their husbands or anyone else's husband until the suffrage is obtained. What next?

The New York Sun is indulging in jokes about the shortage of the California prune crop. But when New Yorkers sit down to a fruitless table as a result of the aforesaid shortage it will be no joke.

It is announced that Huerta fears Villa more than the United States. Good reason. The United States is not in the habit of shooting prisoners of war.

FARM BOYS' CREED

In every schoolhouse in Prince Edward county, Virginia, a placard containing a creed for the American country boys and dedicated to the Boys Corn Club of Virginia has been posted. It reads:

I believe that the country which God made is more beautiful than the city which man made, that life out of doors and in touch with the earth is the natural life of man. I believe that work with nature is more inspiring than work with the most intricate machinery.

I believe that the dignity of labor depends not on what you do, but how you do it; that opportunity comes to a boy on the farm as often as to the boy in the city; that life is larger and freer and happier on the farm than in the town; that no success depends not upon my location but upon myself; not upon my dreams, but upon what I actually do, not upon luck, but upon pluck. I believe in working when you work and in playing when you play, and in giving and demanding a square deal in every act of life.—Washington Post.

SAVE YOUR EYES

Marvelous Home Treatment Does It. HEADACHES BANISHED.

TRY THIS FREE PRESCRIPTION.

Do your eyes ache? Do they itch and burn? Would you like to dispense with your glasses? Are you troubled with headaches? If so, here's a free prescription for you. A New York physician comes forth with the edict that glasses must go. These windows are in many cases, mere crutches and you might just as well expect crutches to cure rheumatism as to expect all eye trouble to be cured by glasses. Many wear glasses who would not require them if they took proper care of their eyes.

This simple home remedy will astonish you after a few applications. It is absolutely harmless in every way. You may use it in a baby's eyes without the slightest fear. The eyes are constantly throwing off poisonous matter, and unless it is washed away, weak, inflamed eyes are apt to result. We publish this prescription so the readers of this paper may reap benefit. Persons having granulated lids will appreciate the comfort and relief this prescription gives. Inflamed, watery eyes, or eyes which look dull and glassy, will be greatly improved after a reasonable trial of this remarkable remedy.

Do not become a victim of neglect. Cut out this prescription and go to your nearest drug store, or to The Owl Drug Co., and send a box of Tablets dissolving in water and apply four times daily. Note how your eyes will clear up and how refreshed they feel. How achy due to tired eyes quickly disappear. You will then thank us for calling your attention to this valuable prescription. In the package you will find a valuable, full-length booklet which gives a vast amount of interesting information pertaining to eye disorders. It should be in every home. Many who are hopelessly blind put off eye protection until it was too late.

Dr. Meyer, executive secretary of the California Social Hygiene Society, also spoke. Christopher Ruess, probation officer, and president of the organization, introduced the speakers. There were about sixty civic and social workers in attendance.

EXHIBITING SNOW PLANT TAKEN FROM SIERRA

Lovers of rare flowers will be privileged to view an excellent specimen of the splendid snow plant (saxifrage sanguinea) at the Oakland public museum this week. The flower is an inhabitant of the high Sierra Nevada regions, where it is often seen in the midst of fields of snow a few inches deep, through which it raises its spike of brilliant red flowers, forming a color combination at once striking and beautiful. An illustration of what nature at her best dare attempt in that line.

upon partially decayed vegetable and animal matter in the humid soil, and because it does not digest and assimilate food after the ordinary manner of plants it does not develop green foliage.

The specimen on display came from Calaveras county, where it was collected by Douglas, son of Judge D. Y. Toffelmier of San Leandro, and sent down to that city. It was displayed in the San Leandro schools and afterward Principal Guy Smith sent it to the Oakland public museum in order that it might be accessible to the greatest possible number of spectators. It will be on display there for the remainder of the week.

TURNER BACK AT DESK; GOT REST AND IDEAS

After visits to Chicago, Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburgh and other large cities of the East, Commissioner of Health and Safety F. C. Turner this morning returned to his desk in the city hall. He attended this morning's meeting of the council and immediately afterward plunged into the work of his office. "There isn't much to tell of the trip," he declared. "It was for a vacation, pure and simple. I had a rest, and my kids learned more about geography than they would have in school. I looked over a good many municipal improvements, inspected some fine police forces and got some new ideas. After seeing all the big city halls of the East I still hold that the Oakland city hall stands out over them all. There's no building designed like it, and the more I see of others the more I realize how wonderful it is. "I looked over some health departments and saw some worse, and some better than ours. I looked over other matters—but after all, I was on a vacation, and tried not to think or talk shop. Now I'm back at the shop I'm going to be too busy to talk vacation."

LOCAL MEN WOULD EQUIP CITY HALL

Specifications Are Prohibitive, They Urge, in Appeal to Commerce Chamber.

Asserting that specifications for the furniture to be installed in the city council chamber and the offices of the mayor and commissioners have been made so detailed that but one or two local firms could possibly submit bids, and that so little time has been given for the submission of proposals on similar articles that local men could not have samples prepared, H. L. Kemp appeared before the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce this morning and submitted a resolution asking the city council to extend the time at least 30 days. The resolution, which at first caused an expression of diverse opinions, was finally adopted without a dissenting voice.

The specifications for the furniture must have been secured from either one or two firms in this city," said J. W. Phillips. "They were so detailed and technical that they must have been prepared by some person outside the city hall; there is no one there who could have done it. It looks as though an attempt had been made to shut out local firms in favor of some one outside company."

CARMEL POISONING MYSTERY UNSOLVED

Alice McGowan, Intended Victim, Will Depart From Artists' Colony.

DEL MONTE, May 12.—Still suffering from the shock of discovering that through three successive days some mysterious enemy sought to poison her with strychnine, Alice McGowan is preparing to flee with her sister, Mrs. Grace McGowan Cook, from Carmel-by-the-Sea and all its bewitching insouciance. The strychnine mystery of which Alice McGowan has been the central figure remains unsolved. The hired detectives have departed thoroughly baffled, and the amateur detectives, Hopper, the writer, and Arthur Vachell, the artist, and all the others who worked diligently on the case for weeks have returned to their own pursuits.

WOMAN'S FATE UPSETS HER JUROR'S HEALTH

That the life sentence imposed upon Hazel Lux Saturday for the murder of William Garland had so unnerved him that he became ill, was the explanation of Juror A. Hoenisch today in asking Superior Judge Wells to excuse him from serving on a jury in the Delmont case. Hoenisch was chosen as a juror in the will contest last Friday. The case opened today with the taking of testimony, after another juror had been sworn in.

POLICE SEEK MISSING YOUTH, MARION COHAN

Marion Cohan, a schoolboy, aged 14, was reported missing from his home, 61 Eighth street, today, and a search has been started by the police. The boy, according to his mother, left home yesterday, ostensibly to go to school, and has not been heard of since. His mother, according to the police, is prostrated with grief, although she declares it as her belief that the boy is staying with friends—probably playing "hooky." The detective bureau is handling the case.

TURN OVER SUSPECT TO PROBATION OFFICER

James McKenzie, arrested as he was, according to the police, seeking to effect an entrance to the home of Superintendent of Streets H. Smith, of Piedmont, was today turned over to Probation Officer Ollie Snedigar by the police. It is declared that he had been intoxicated at the time.

WONDER WHAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN TO JONES?

Joseph Jones, a negro, arrested on a charge of drunkenness, was allowed to go on his protestation that he was sober and would behave. Two hours later he was taken into custody on a charge of mauling a friend. He was arraigned this morning in the police court on charges of battery and drunkenness.

EXONERATED FROM BLAME

Police investigation into the fire at the home of J. P. Gilligan several days ago when a number of firemen were burned in an explosion of grease and chemicals in the basement of the home, has declared the fact that an explosive was in the house was not the cause of the fire. The manufacture of a rust-preventing compound, and it was this which, catching fire from the kerosene in the home, 61 Fifty-ninth street, exploded. The owner of the home has been exonerated of any blame in connection with the affair by the investigation. The mixture, it was declared, is under ordinary circumstances harmless.

APPROVES SALE TERMS OF UNENTERED LOTS

LANE today approved regulations for the sale of unentered lots in the towns of Taylor, Searle, Brockton Blair, Chelsea, Macon, Wolf Point, Oswego, Fraser and Milk River, Mont.

Rids for the lots must be made in person or by agent and not through the mails, on the several dates designated for the auction. There are no restrictions as to the number of lots any person may purchase and none as to the qualifications of the purchasers. Warning is given, however, against any combination or agreement or other attempt to hinder or embarrass the sale.

INJURED MAN AWARDED DAMAGES OF MOTORIST

Judgment for $500 was awarded Theodore Lydecker, a young electrician of Alameda, by a jury in Superior Judge Brown's court last evening against J. M. ## Dealing Squarely With the Public

What assurance have you after you have purchased a piano on which a reduction of from fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars has been made that you have really bought at the bottom price? How are you to know that the next buyer who happens in will not get an additional twenty-five or fifty dollars reduction?

Does it seem reasonable to you that a piano built to sell at three hundred dollars can be sold for one hundred and ninety and leave a legitimate and fair margin of profit for the dealer?

Bear in mind this fact—no merchant sells his goods at a loss, and the piano that is offered at a reduction of one-third to one-half off is a dangerous and unsafe investment at any price. It is built to deceive, sold by dealers whose policy is to charge all the traffic will bear and who do not hesitate to take advantage of the fact that the average buyer is unskilled in piano construction and the quality of materials.

On our floors may be seen pianos that are very low in price; as low, in fact, as good, dependable pianos can possibly be made and sold. They are the product of factories which have established their reputations by the merit and quality of their pianos, and the prices, save for the addition of Eastern freight, are identically the same as in New York, Boston or Chicago.

No effort is made by our salesmen to convince the buyer that the low-priced piano equals in quality the best, but you will be told and it will be proven to you that, dollar for dollar, your money will buy more real piano quality here than at any other store in the West. Because we respect the intelligence of the buying public and because we know no other method of doing business, we give you the positive assurance that you will get the best piano possible at the price paid.

Gossip of Students and Residents in University Town

Alameda Gathering Hears Vari-
Water Question.

ALAMEDA, May 12. — "We are like a group of people who have been told to go to the sanatorium," declared Mayor Frank Otis, speaking to a mass meeting of citizens of Alameda concerning the water question at the city hall last night. "We have carried him down to the sidewalk, and we realize that we must get him to the hospital or he will die. But suddenly we are told that he ought to be carried in a wagon, whether it is good enough to carry him to the hospital. And while we are fighting about the means, the patient is in danger of dying."

"It is the same way with the water district matter. We all agree that the condition is serious, that we must have control of this water system, or we may find ourselves in a condition that will put this community back years in its progress. We believe in municipal ownership. We have all got that far, and we have a vehicle in the shape of a bill that has made the districtists to carry us where we want to go. But suddenly we have all gone to disputing about this bill, whether it is good enough to carry us. It is carrying Marin and Richmond, and is similar to that in other states. But that is not enough. We want a Roman chariot, or a electric automobile, or a Pullman car to take our patient to the sanatorium, and unless we get our particular kind of buggy, we'd rather let the patient die than use what we have."

ALL POINTS OF VIEW.

This analogy presented by Mayor Otis was the climax of a lengthy debate among citizens who attended the mass meeting. The meeting was called by the Alameda Citizens' League, headed by A. E. Ackison, president. Among the speakers on the water matter were: Peter J. Crosby, an attorney; Frank Otis, Mayor of Alameda; Burlingame, Mayor of Berkeley; Mrs. Lucy Barker of Elmhurst; J. A. Boyer of Golden Gate; Green, Mayor of Alameda; and a number of Alameda citizens. The water question was argued from all points of view, and the meeting was held for free discussion after the speakers had concluded their addresses.

The action was taken by the improvement club, as the meeting had been called for the purpose of obtaining information on the water matter. Individual members expressed their views on the water question, and the meeting was held for free discussion after the speakers had concluded their addresses.

It is well known that the Peoples Water company will not be able to take up its underlying bonds that fall due in January, and will go into the hands of receivers. The question is, shall the people most interested, take over the system, or shall we allow it to be taken over by private capital, with the prospect of years more of domination by the corporation? We must face this problem squarely and fairly.

CUTTING DOWN LIMIT REACHED.

But we must realize, that it is necessary to get the machinery to act, to create a water district.

The engineer who has studied this question realizes the absolute necessity for providing for future needs, declared Mayor Otis. Our population has been increasing, but our water supply has remained the same, and due to metered service and the high cost of water, each citizen has cut down his individual consumption, but we have reached the limit of the cutting down process.

Nothing financially unable to provide for the future needs based upon the most conservative estimate of future population, it is unthinkable that we shall leave the control of this essential of life in private hands.

ATTORNEY CROSBY'S VIEWS.

"For a generation we have been struggling for public control of our water supply," said Attorney Crosby, "and we have lost it in getting this water district formed. The welfare and safety of the community on the east shore of the bay demand that we gain control of the water system and the only possible means by which this may be accomplished is through the organization of this district."

"Every possible safeguard has been thrown about the plan on behalf of the people. And now that the law has given us a long looked for opportunity to get what we have been fighting for these many years, we should take advantage of the situation and go ahead. Not only the majority of the water district residents in the proposed district, but the Board of Supervisors of the county have unanimously pledged themselves to exact a promise from their prospective appointees to the board of directors which will give full guarantee to the people of the district a referendum on the water district, or any property for a municipal water supply."

Aside from this protection the people have absolute control of the situation from start to finish. The voters have the first say and the last say. Should they decide on June 2 to take over the water district, the State railroad commission will

WHY GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY?

THE CHURCHES MERIT YOUR SUPPORT

They furnish the dynamic for social progress and the genius for social reconstruction. They projected the idea and produced the fact of freedom.

They founded, cherished and still support the great institutions for education. Cities and states where churches are thoroughly established and adequately supported are proportionately prosperous and orderly, great and free.

They are the great character building institutions.

THE CHURCHES NEED YOUR SUPPORT

They are Free institutions supported entirely by the voluntary service of their adherents.

The more generally they are supported the greater will be the working force they produce, and the more efficient the service they render to society.

They furnish a wholesome environment in which to train children and youth for efficient and satisfactory living, and help to conserve mature character against the insidious temptations of middle life.

POET STERLING WILL WRITE POPULAR SONGS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—George Sterling has gone to New York to write popular songs. He admitted it to a fellow member of the Bohemian Club just before he left. More, he brazenly defied his chosen course. "There is no defense for ninety-nine per cent of the popular songs written today," said Sterling to his Bohemian friend. "They are awful." The words are meaningless and the music is worse. Song-writing has degenerated into the occupation of the "hot boiler." It needs bolstering up. Song-writing should be an art. And so I am going to New York. "Well, you can write the words all right," said his friend, "but who is going to write the music?" "Music? Of course," said the poet. "I'm to whistle that and the publisher has promised to have a musical amanuensis write down the notes as I whistle. Listen to this!" And he gave an example of what the musical amanuensis is to take down.

MERCURY CYCLECAR WINS AT SAN JOSE

Clever Little Machine Shows Some Speedy Events at Races.

Sunday was an eventful day for the Mercury Cyclecar, which carried away the honors in three cyclecar speed contests at San Jose, according to Manager Fred Hauger of the E. L. Peacock Auto Co., and settled for all time any doubt as to its ability to stand under the severest of racing tests. Four Mercury cyclecars, including the racing car (which incidentally was a stock machine in all respects), were entered in the first race. A large crowd assembled at the driving park to witness horse, motorcycle and cyclecar contests in the afternoon. An oval track in none too good shape, with dangerous sand turns presented to the contestants an hazardous course over which they must drive at a risk of life. The first cyclecar event, a three mile standing start, in which the two Mercurys finished first and second making the distance in 4 minutes 28 seconds. An excited audience, which Mercury one mile against time brought the crowd to its feet as the cyclecar came into the stretch at a remarkable clip, after having skidded on the soft turn clear across the track. This was the first exhibition mile driven by a cyclecar, and the time of 63 seconds.

The E. L. Peacock Auto Co. of Oakland entered the Mercury which annexed all records and prizes and hopes to duplicate its performance next Sunday over the same course.

CYCLECAR IN MOVIES. At last the cyclecar has arrived in both the legitimate and the illegitimate drama. A few weeks ago an Imp Cyclecar played an important part in a minstrel show given by the Tulsa, Oklahoma, Lodge of Elks and now comes word from Wichita, Kansas, that J. Fred Noel and C. M. Tucker have produced a three reel thrilling scenario in an Imp Cyclecar, carrying the handsome lover and the sheriff, rescue the beautiful heroine, after an exciting cross-country chase, and drive in which the diminutive cyclecar overhauls the big red 50 horse power automobile, carrying the heavy villain and his bewhiskered black-browed confederates, thus enabling honesty and virtue to triumph in the end.

CADILLAC WITH RECORD. With a complete camping outfit, including beds, tents, and cooking utensils, and a few more passengers, a Cadillac entered the mountain passes in the Santa Fe trail. The feature of this trip that is exceptional is the fact that the car, a Cadillac, as a 1909 model, and has already achieved 75,000 miles of good service in Southern California, a record stiff enough to be called a life work with the average car.

Nevertheless George Duesler, owner of the car, is making the cross-continent trip with all the confidence in the world. He is accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duesler. Together with the passengers, camp equipment and baggage, the car carries a load of 1500

From San Diego the tourists followed the course of the desert road race as far as Phoenix. They will remain in Phoenix several weeks waiting for the snow to melt in the mountain passes in eastern Arizona.

PAIGE MAKES UNIQUE RECORD. Matthews Hill at Ararat is famous throughout the world as a barrier to automobilists who travel through that portion of the State. The following is quoted from a certificate given by the occupants of a Paige "36" which recently succeeded in climbing the 38 per cent grade to the summit.

DANISH MONARCHS GUESTS IN LONDON

King and Queen Are Delighted by Brilliant Military Pageant.

LONDON, May 12.—The King and Queen of Denmark were the guests of the lord mayor and corporation of London today and a brilliant company assembled at the Guildhall for the civic luncheon given in their honor. The function was made the occasion for an imposing military display, for the Danish sovereigns drove in full state from Buckingham Palace, where they are staying. The men of the brigade of guards lined the route to the Guildhall and cuirassiers troopers of the Life Guards formed the escort. At various points along the route the regimental bands played the Danish national anthem and British standards were lowered in honor of the royal visitors. Great crowds gave them an enthusiastic welcome. King George being tactful enough to keep out of the picture so that the greeting accorded his guests should be quite personal. King Christian, who wore the Danish naval uniform, looked in excellent health and he and his consort were obviously delighted by the warmth of their reception. At historic Temple Bar the royal procession was challenged and the lord mayor and sheriffs, with all the glory of mace, sword and trumpeters, greeted the visitors and welcomed them to the city.

Arriving at Guildhall, the whole party, including minor British royalties, high navy and army officers and cabinet ministers, adjourned to the library, where an address of welcome and the freedom of the city was presented. Lord Mayor Sir Vansittart Bouverie, in proposing the health of the royal guests, made a happy reference to the "sea king's daughter from over the sea" (Queen Mother Alexandra), who cemented the ties of friendship between England and Denmark, and gave England such a beautiful, accomplished and universally loved Queen.

The Danish monarchs returned to the palace amid further demonstrations of public enthusiasm. "Queen Alexandra's nephew" was quite sufficient to secure for King Christian the homage of the British public.

SOCIALIST DEAD. NEW YORK, May 12.—Daniel de Leon, the Socialist Labor party candidate for governor of New York in 1902, active in the nationalist movement since 1900, died of heart disease in a hospital here last night, aged 61 years. He was born on the island of Curacao.

HOUSE MAY VOTE BY ELECTRICITY

Resolution Asks $20,000 Appropriation to Install Voting Machines.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—An appropriation of $20,000 to provide for installing electric voting machines in the House at the next session of Congress was proposed in a resolution introduced today by Representative Walsh of New Jersey as the result of a recent conference of House leaders. Majority Leader Underwood estimated that $20,000 worth of time a year would be saved by the use of the automatic push button device. The plan includes assigning each representative to a particular numbered seat for voting purposes, each member to carry the only key to his particular device, a recording apparatus at the speaker's desk with indicators to show the voting while in progress and the result as the place in the press gallery and the majority and minority tables in the House chamber. Present roll calls occupy a half to three-quarters of an hour and the new scheme is expected to reduce this ten minutes.

WEST VIRGINIA MINE DISASTER PROBE BEGUN

COALFIELD, W. Va., May 12.—Formal inquiry into the causes leading up to the explosion in mine No. 5, of the New River Collieries Companies April 3, which claimed 172 lives, was commenced today by Earl Y. Henry, chief of the West Virginia Mining Department.

ADVOCATES OBSERVATORY FOR TOP OF MT. DIABLO

Mount Diablo as the site for a government meteorological observatory and wireless station is being advocated by Secretary A. A. Denison of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. "Such an observatory would prove of vast benefit to the entire surrounding country," said Denison. "The isolated situation of the mountain with its view of ocean, coast ranges and the Sierra Nevada make it an ideal spot for the observation of wind currents, the movement of clouds and sea fogs and isothermic phenomena." Denison plans to enlist the support of Congressman Charles Curry of Contra Costa county in an appeal to the federal government for an appropriation.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N. J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N. J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock:

UTICA, ORE.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has cured many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Society

MISS MARION ROGERS, ONE OF THE ATTRACTIVE GIRLS OF THE HAYWARD SET.

SPEAKING of dancing, the latest news is that Pavlova is to teach New York society to dance. She will open a "studio" in Fifth avenue and do her best to "improve ball room dancing in America," so the announcements state.

There's a horrid reference that ball room dancing in America is not all it should be in spite of recent compliments.

Or does Pavlova mean she will develop it? There's room for that because, though a lot of women know the steps, many who are counted on five fingers at a dance. Naturally women can't tango alone, so there's really very little general tangoing. At the last private ball of the season in San Francisco there was only a single tango danced through to the end. Mrs. Fred McNear and some courageous gentleman went through the figures, while the rest of the Whitte's guests watched them.

The truth is, Americans one-step with general single-heartedness because it's the dance the men are sure of. Most of them are awfully uncertain of the new steps. The men who do them are delirious foreigners like Count Montegles or Senor Aligerito, of Brazil, who tangoed unselfishly through the winter. American men don't.

In New York they tango at Castle House, which is a temple of Terpsichore, but very little at The Plaza, where society tea dances. And they one-step far more than they tango at Newport.

In Paris they do the Maxixe and the tango as carelessly as they walk—everyone, tout le monde. The only people who stare are visiting Americans. Possibly it's the sense of doing something extraordinary that Pavlova will correct. Inspire the commercial spirit of masculine America to the easy acquisition of more compliments from the women.

American women won't everlastingly have to one-step with them.

PLANS LARGE LUNCHEON.
Mrs. John Francis Smith will be hostess at an elaborate luncheon on Thursday at her home in Piedmont, where she will entertain a score of guests, many of them friends who have country places near her own at Boulder Creek. Among the guests will be Miss Nan Raleigh of New York, who is Mrs. Smith's house guest for several weeks. Others present will be Mrs. Ernest Folger, Mrs. William Havens, Mrs. Edward Enns, Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld, Miss Carrie Nicholson, Mrs. Albert Long, Mrs. Newton Coker, Mrs. William Ede, Mrs. Burr Eastwood, Mrs. Robert Newell, Mrs. William Pollard, Mrs. Wilhelm, Mrs. Herbert Proctor and Mrs. Alexander Marx.

DO NOT TIPIFY VANITY

(By LILLIAN RUSSELL)

MEN are far more vain than women—yes, they are. They can't help it, however, for ever since the male of the species came upon this earth it has been the male that spread his feathers to attract the female. The simple gray female birds were given somber plumage for their own protection against the hunter. The brilliant plumage was given to the male that he might attract a mate or fly for his protection.

Although in this age women gown and beautify themselves like the male peacock to attract—and men assume the more somber apparel like the peacock—the same vanity exists. It is vanity that causes almost all men to think that they are irresistible to any woman to whom they choose to pay their addresses and most of even think it necessary to make themselves personally attractive by cleanliness of gown. Men assume that women love them, and although they look for sacrifice in every quarter from their beloved, they resent making any, but still expect devotion.

While a woman will study and plan to keep charming, a man will neglect to consider whether he pleases. This is vanity. His vanity is far greater than hers, for if she were vain she would not strive to please; her conceit would cause her to think it unnecessary. You have but to place a man facing a mirror during a dinner to prove that he is vain. I never saw one in my life who did not fall a victim to his own attractions—against all other present charms.

Lillian Russell
Answers to Queries.

MISS I. M. S.—Glycerine alone will not remove pimples and blackheads. You must be persistent in the treatment to remove these blemishes from your face. First look to your diet. Eliminate all greasy and rich, creamy foods. Eat plenty of fruit and vegetables. Take several glasses of water between meals.

fresh air will also help. For white heads wash the face with warm water, then open each pore with a hairbrush and a fine needle and press or pick out the tiny white mass. Apply a little peroxide. For the blackheads I would advise you to use the green soap treatment. Green soap may be purchased at any drug store.

G. C. N.—Gentle massage with a good skin food will remove the wrinkles. Always massage across the wrinkles, not the same direction in which they are running. I am sorry I cannot print complete instructions for facial massage. They are much too long, but I shall gladly send them to you with the formula for the skin food if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I shall gladly send it to you.

MRS. E. N. C.—You did not enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply in your request for skin food, hand lotion and dandruff. If you will write again asking for them, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply, I will be glad to mail them to you.

Afternoon, among them Miss Leone and Miss Inez Marchant who will leave for Europe in June, and in whose honor the affair was given. After luncheon the party occupied a box at the Orpheum.

INFORMAL CARD PARTY.
Miss Helen Button's card party this evening will be a very informal affair for a dozen guests. The invitations were sent by telephone and only a coterie of intimate friends will be entertained.

RECEIVED FROM THIS SIDE OF THE BAY.

Several guests from this side of the bay went to San Rafael today for the wedding of Miss Margaret Belden and Sydney Ford, among them Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Downs of Berkeley. It took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Belden home in Ross Valley where an all fresco reception followed the ceremony. The bride wore a robe of white satin with a train of exquisite Honiton lace that had been worn by Mrs. Alfred Ford when she was a bride, and by her mother, Lady Sydney Waterford of London, at her wedding. It was also worn by the former Miss Mary Miller at her wedding to Bernard Ford, and by Mrs. Arthur Ford (Constance Davis) at her marriage in April. It added a charming touch of sentiment to the costume as well as a very beautiful ornament.

Mrs. Belden, mother of the bride, wore white satin broadened in silver, and Mrs. Alfred Ford, the groom's mother, wore a gown of white satin, which had been remodeled to the present fashion. By a delightful coincidence it was the anniversary of her marriage.

After a wedding trip of several weeks duration the young couple will occupy a cottage adjoining that of the Arthur Fords in Sausalito.

WALKS FROM NEBRASKA TO GULF ON CRUTCHES.

McKINNEY, Tex., May 12.—E. J. Weston is walking more than 1000 miles from Nelson, Neb., to Galveston. The walk itself is not so wonderful, but Weston is making the long trip on crutches, as he is a cripple, and his record will likely stand unbroken for crutches. His wife, two daughters and two sons are making the trip with him, also on foot.

The family has not used any conveyance for even one mile, and they have been two months on the trip. Their progress is naturally slow because of Weston's crutches. He is making the trip for the benefit of his health, he says. Weston lost a leg in a railroad accident.

TO SAIL FOR EUROPE.

Mrs. J. P. Halloran and Miss Ruth Halloran who left last week for New York will sail on May 21 for England where they will meet Mr. Halloran who is at present in London after several months' journeying through Egypt and the Far East. The party will tour Great Britain and the continent and later Miss Halloran will take a course in German literature in Berlin. The Hallorans plan to return to Berkeley in November.

RETURN FROM SOUTH.

Miss Alice Higgins is the guest of friends in Auburn where she has spent the past fortnight and where many entertainments have been given for her. Miss Higgins' engagement to Frederick Crockett was an announcement of last month. Plans for the wedding will not be made until after her return next Monday, but it will take place in the summer.

LEAVES FOR THE EAST.

Miss Allen Cunha of Berkeley left for the East this morning to be absent several months. She will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Klippel of Frankfort, Indiana, and later will go to New York.

MILITANT DISTURBS OPERA AUDIENCE

Suffragette Shouts to King George Women Are Being Tortured.

LONDON, May 12.—The Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, was commandeered last night by King George for a gala the King and Queen of Denmark, who are paying their accession visit to this country. The singers included Melba and Emma Destinn.

The audience included leaders of the political, diplomatic and social world of London. During an interlude a suffragette rose in the balcony and shouted: "King George women are being tortured in your dominions."

Two men seized the disturber and dragged her out of the house. The singers who started "Demonstrating" they shouted, kicked and clawed as they were being carried from the building. Meanwhile other suffragettes in the gallery above the royal box threw down suffragette leaflets.

THIRD OF FAMILY TO HEAR SPIRIT CALL.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—Mrs. George Palmer, the third of her family to hear "the spirit call" within four days, was buried yesterday after a funeral under the Spiritualist ritual had been held in her home.

The others dead in the family are: George Palmer, the stepson, and George Palmer, the father. All three were Spiritualists.

The story of the spirit calls that preceded Mrs. Palmer's death and that of her husband was told today by her brother, Henry D. Palmer. He said she was in good health up to the time of her stepson's death Wednesday, but that night she heard the call.

FOUR DEAF MUTES AT MARRIAGE ALTAR.

MERIDEN, Conn., May 12.—With the four graduates of the deaf-mute school and most of the assembly of deaf-mutes, the Misses Laura and Eva Lenoue, daughters of Walter Lenoue, were married. Laura to Fred S. Cagney of North Adams, Mass., and Eva to Mose Levene of Lowell, Mass., yesterday. The ceremony was performed in sign language by Rev. Father Quinn of St. Joseph's Cathedral, Hartford, at St. Laurent's church.

SAN JOSEAN WEDS HANFORD GIRL.

HANFORD, May 12.—With 200 invited guests attending, and amid a great profusion of beautiful blooms, Floyd Alfred Stull of San Jose and Miss Ada Valeria Taylor of Hanford, were united in marriage at the Episcopal Church of the Savior at 8 o'clock last evening. Rev. R. O. Miller officiated. Hanford's society has not witnessed a more pretentious nuptial event this season.

An elaborate reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Taylor, followed the ceremony. The bride is extremely popular in Central California, her father being a wealthy dairy and fruit farmer, and was a candidate on the Progressive ticket for the Assembly at the last election. Stull is a clubman of San Jose, where the young people will make their home.

PARIS MAN'S WHISKERS HELPFUL IN JUGGLING.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The extent of his whiskers makes the average Paris folk grow a male "impossible" from an American woman's peevish standpoint, says Miss Alice Brewster, of Lakewood, N. J., who has just returned from the French capital.

Paris whiskers, according to the experts over there, are not garnered with the primary idea of getting a beautiful beard, but rather with the notion or ambition of getting something that is useful, in one way or another. The boulevardiers who sit outside the cafes on the avenues and stroke their luxuriant beards and twist and pomade their curling moustaches are preparing themselves for utilitarian purposes.

These immense Paris whiskers are of great assistance to the jugglers and magicians, who conceal their guinea pigs, bowls of water, stove pipe hats, gold fish, etc., with which to amaze the audience at the proper time.

Sixty-four different standard kinds of whiskers are officially recognized by the Paris barbers, and there is a full set of rules for the upkeep of each particular kind. Among the popular mustaches are the "climbers" and the "morning glories." While the beard goes by such names as the "craggy," "waterproof" and "grapevine."

KANSAS FARMERS LARGE BUYERS OF AUTOMOBILES.

TOPEKA, May 12.—According to data of the Automobile Department of the Secretary of State's office, about sixty new cars have been sold each day in Kansas since April 1. Estimating their cost at $1000 each, which is conservative, it means the people of Kansas are investing about $60,000 a day in new motor cars.

"Dealers generally are telling of many prospects for sales next month," said Curtis Myers, chief clerk of the Automobile Department. "We have a license inspector out on the road a good share of the time, and we may also hear generally over the state tell him of good business and a fine outlook."

"More than half of the new automobiles are going to the central and western part of Kansas. That means the farmers are buying the machines." Mr. Myers said that by July 1, when new licenses must be bought, he expects outside of the dealers' cars that at least 40,000 cars will be registered for the year.

POLK PRESENTED WITH BILLET AS WATCH CHARM.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mounted as a champion, the bullet from the gun of Michael P. Mahoney, the demented blacksmith, which passed through his chin, has been presented to Frank L. Polk, corporation counsel of the city. The presentation was made at the New York hospital by Mayor Mitchell, for whom the bullet was intended. The bullet was removed from the cheek of the corporation counsel after he was taken to the hospital.

CAMERA CLICKS ON BATH BEAUTY POSES IN ROBE

Mlle. de Mipris, posing for her famous "bathrobe" picture, which has started a new Parisian fad.

PARIS, May 12.—They're tired of the "in bed" pictures, the "residence" pictures and the "breakfast" pictures, in which the girls in bathrobes pose. The tub, as if preparing to make the plunge. Of course, they usually wear coiffures that are triumphs of hair-dressing—and not for worlds would they let real water touch them. Mlle. de Mipris, a young Parisian artist, started the craze and several of her photographs, showing herself in a "futurist" dressing gown that rivaled Joseph's coats by two hundred and sixty-seven shades, were shown all over Paris. That started the craze. Titled women, society leaders and persons prominent in Bohemian circles alike have gone in for the "bathrobe" pictures and from all indications the fad has come to stay for a while.

Of course it hasn't come to that yet, but the bathrobe is there and that only means a model more daring than the rest—and it's done. So far the society women of Paris have contented themselves by standing in the bathrobe, as if preparing to make the plunge. Of course, they usually wear coiffures that are triumphs of hair-dressing—and not for worlds would they let real water touch them. Mlle. de Mipris, a young Parisian artist, started the craze and several of her photographs, showing herself in a "futurist" dressing gown that rivaled Joseph's coats by two hundred and sixty-seven shades, were shown all over Paris. That started the craze. Titled women, society leaders and persons prominent in Bohemian circles alike have gone in for the "bathrobe" pictures and from all indications the fad has come to stay for a while.

Facial Massage, according to the following directions, will take from twenty to thirty minutes. A busy woman can hardly do them daily, and this is not necessary or desirable; twice a week is sufficient for a complete facial massage.

Begin by cleansing the face thoroughly with a pure soap and water, or preferably, with a good cleansing cream which gets the accumulations out of the pores and softens the skin as soap cannot do. If soap is used, rinse thoroughly; if cream is used, wipe off the surplus with a piece of soft linen or cheese cloth that has been washed.

For the next step dip a clean, thick square of cloth (flannel or toweling is generally used) into fairly hot water, completely cover the face with this and let it stay on until cool. Repeat this operation three or four times or until the skin is warm and rosy. This process is to open and soften the pores of the skin so they will quickly absorb the massage cream. I cannot give the exact temperature of the water to be used in this warming process, for it depends on the skin. If the skin is thick and pores are closed, the water should be almost hot. If the skin is delicate and the blood near the surface, it should hardly be more than lukewarm. Now dry the skin gently with a towel.

These are the two main causes for the greatest of beauty ailments—wrinkles, under the chin, and around the eyes, crow's feet, sagging cheeks and frowning lines. In the past women regarded such afflictions as the natural accompaniment of advancing years, but we have learned

WRINKLES AND FACIAL MASSAGE.

The skin of the face in a normal condition is very elastic, and a loss of this elasticity is the frequent cause of fine surface lines that come often in young faces. If these are neglected, they turn into deeper lines and wrinkles. In childhood the flesh or fatty tissue underlying the skin is firm and hard, and the skin is stretched over it like smooth silk. If illness, or any other cause, depletes this amount of fatty tissue or causes it to grow soft and fall away, the skin falls naturally into wrinkles and deep furrows. These are the two main causes for the greatest of beauty ailments—wrinkles, under the chin, and around the eyes, crow's feet, sagging cheeks and frowning lines. In the past women regarded such afflictions as the natural accompaniment of advancing years, but we have learned

EXPLOSION ON LINER KILLS EIGHT

Old Dominion Ship Survives Accident; Returns With Dead and Injured.

NORFOLK, Va., May 12.—Eight men were killed in an explosion in the engine room of the Old Dominion ship Jefferson near Cape Henry last night. Several were injured. The ship returned to Norfolk, left the dead and injured and then resumed her trip to New York.

The dead are members of the Jefferson's engine room crew, but have not yet been identified. According to local officers of the Old Dominion line, the vessel was not badly damaged by the explosion, which occurred as the Jefferson was passing out from this port for New York.

First word of the explosion reached Norfolk late last night, but that fatalities had occurred was not learned until today.

WILL RE-TENT LUDLOW COLONY

Strikers Clearing Site of Death-Swept Fields of Colorado Strike.

TRINIDAD, May 12.—When leaders in the Ludlow colony, for the erection of a new tent colony at Ludlow, strikers were ordered to clear the site of the old colony which was destroyed by fire April 29, when 22 people were killed.

Enforcement of disarmament of contending factions in the strike districts, in accordance with the proclamation issued by the governor, is expected to bear out the promise of strikers that no hostility will be shown to the federal troops. According to the government's mandate the order does not specifically command search and seizure of dwellings, but persons "suspected" of having weapons will be required to surrender arms, and the order will be enforced "as the authorities see fit."

RAPID REMEDIAL LAWS
DENVER, Colo., May 12.—With but one tedious break in the administration program of remedial legislation, progress of measures assumed to relieve existing industrial conditions in the state was being made more rapidly than expected by the most conservative members of the Assembly.

With future expeditions by the state militia in the strike districts is provided for in the million dollar issue passed yesterday, perhaps the most perplexing measure yet remaining to be dealt with in the compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.

Progressive members of the House favoring a wider scope of authority have yet given up in their efforts and, it is said, have prevailed upon some of the Democratic members to the necessity of more latitude.

'To Be or Not to Be?' This Prisoner's Soliloquy Brief

CHICAGO, May 12.—A prisoner in the Municipal Court yesterday was cured of a desire to commit suicide when the prosecuting attorney put a loaded revolver in his hand and told him to go into the ante-room and carry out his threat.

"You say you wish to die," said James C. Dooley, assistant state's attorney, to William Breszinski, on trial for shooting his wife Saturday. Then take this revolver. Go into that ante-room and kill yourself. No one will prevent you."

Breszinski took the weapon in a surprised manner, weighed it a moment and then laid it on the bar before Judge Seely.

"I've decided now that I will live and make a man of myself," he said. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve a year in the House of Correction.

"Cinderella" Finds Tiny Lost Slipper

Tribune Want Ad Is the Modern Prince

Modern Cinderella and her 12½, a child's size, slipper, recovered through a modern fairy prince—a Want Ad.

LOST—Between Orpheum Theater and Kah's Dept. Store, size lady satin slipper, 12½, child's size. Reward if returned to Orpheum Theater.

TINY SLIPPER OF NEW CINDERELLA HAS BEEN FOUND

Newspaper Is the Medium Through Which It Returns to Its Owner

Modern Cinderella has discovered her Prince in Oakland. She lost her slipper and the Prince found it. Cinderella is Miss Violet MacMillan, the Prince is a TRIBUNE want ad.

It was one of the little, prettiest slippers imaginable for a woman to wear and there is no wonder she lost it. So little is it that it is a wonder the Prince found it. A satin pump, 12½ child's size, is an article not hard to lose from a package in a crowd, especially when one is paying slight attention to the bundle.

And that is what Miss MacMillan, a dainty Princess of the footlights, who is playing at the Orpheum this week, was doing yesterday—paying slight attention to the package of a slipper.

She carried the package with her all the time to be sure she would not lose it. She must have lost it, for the slipper, they say, is so small and difficult to obtain, because they are specially ordered and manufactured. But in the excitement of the day Cinderella became careless. And the drama of her good fortune began when she discovered the grievous fact that she had lost a slipper.

Miss MacMillan wore the slippers to the theater. They were so pretty when she put them on that she could not resist the temptation of wearing them right away. So she carried her old ones. But when she got to the theater she did not want to risk the beauty of the new treasures by stretching them. She changed to the old ones again and wrapped the new ones in the bundle, and placing it under her arm, proceeded to go shopping.

THE MODERN PRINCE.
Not until Cinderella reached San Pablo and Fourteenth street did she notice the string had become untied and one of her precious slippers had been lost. She and her friends resented their loss, but to no avail.

The "Princess" upon the discovery, took the first opportunity to set the most up-to-date agency at work in her behalf. THE TRIBUNE want ad columns were resorted to and lo and behold, the want ad brought immediate response, and it was not long before Miss MacMillan was again in possession of the pretty little satin pump. THE TRIBUNE want ad was the modern "Prince" to the modern "Cinderella."

RECEIVE DIPLOMAS DEMOCRATS PARLEY SIEGEL FUGITIVE?

Eleven Graduates Complete Work at Mills College; Commencement Exercises.

Commencement exercises were conducted this afternoon at Mills College in Lissner Hall, where eleven young women received their diplomas. The graduates were addressed by Rev. F. L. Goodspeed, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city. The hall was filled with patrons of the institution, members of the alumnae and friends of the students.

Plans of the leaders today were for passage of the annual supply bills, enactment of anti-trust measures, the rural credits bill and a vote on the prohibition amendment.

The caucus will consider all these measures and the prohibition amendment may be injected into the deliberations. Some of the Democrats, however, launched a movement today to have the caucus declare in favor of adjournment of Congress immediately after disposing of the appropriation bills. Majority Leader Underwood is prepared to offer a resolution at tonight's caucus to give precedence to pending features in the legislative program. These include the supply measures, the Clayton anti-trust bill, the Covington interstate trade commission bill and the rural credits measure.

A contrary movement was on foot today to introduce a resolution at the caucus favoring passage by Congress of the remainder of the appropriation bills and then adjourn.

The prospects were, however, that the latter plan would not be successful.

Crushed to Death Beneath Hoghead

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Crushed beneath a hoghead of wine on Pier 28 last night, died Saturday at her home in Los Angeles, Mrs. Henriette Simney, 61 years old.

Dry Goods Merchant, Under Indictment, Takes Steamer for Europe.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Before Henry Siegel, under indictment on charges growing out of his alleged mismanagement of his mercantile enterprise, sailed for Europe yesterday, he sent a man to the public library to inquire what countries there are with which the United States has no extradition treaties, according to statements made in the Supreme Court here yesterday by Arthur Train, assistant to District Attorney Whitman.

Mr. Train is opposing Siegel's efforts to obtain a change of venue at his coming trial.

John E. Stanchfield, counsel for Siegel, read to the court a wireless message from Siegel at London, "Return by next steamer if wanted. Inform W. of it."

It was assumed that W. meant District Attorney Whitman. Mr. Stanchfield said Siegel went to London to see his daughter, whose children were said to be ill.

Japan Prepares for Canal Celebration

TOKIO, May 12.—The department of the navy announced today that the cruisers Ibuki and Chikuma, which are to participate in the celebration of the canal opening, will sail for Hampton Roads from the naval harbor of Yokosuka about October 15.

The training vessel Tsubaki, of the Tokyo School of Navigation, which is about to leave Yokohama, will visit San Francisco and other Pacific coast ports after a cruise of South American waters.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS GATHER

Barbecue on Diablo Precedes Ritualistic Exercises in Martinez Tonight.

Spanish War Veterans, 1000 strong, with their wives, families and auxiliary members, are gathered today on the slopes of Mount Diablo, where they are being entertained at a great barbecue and rodeo, viewing the range sports of California. They will return tonight by special train to Martinez, where they are encamped in their annual session. Tonight will see the ceremonies of the Order of the Serpent, followed by the order of the Garter. This order is an affiliated organization of the veterans. "The Crawl of the Snake" is a feature of their ritual, which will be held at the Curry Theater.

Past Department Commander B. A. Forster was honored as national commander today. The national encampment, which is shortly to meet at Louisville, Ky., will select San Francisco for the assemblage in 1915.

The following were today put in nominations for department offices: Department commander, H. F. Huber; senior vice-department commander, Robert Wankowski, junior vice-commander, Herbert Choyinski, Robert Perry and John Wisbach; department inspector, L. A. Harris; judge advocate, George C. Price; permanent surgeon, Hugo Waho, chaplain, John Donaldson.

The big encampment of the veterans opened yesterday, when the Department of California men gathered from all parts of the state. Most of the delegates were in their seats when, at 10 o'clock, Commander L. F. Stephens called the first session to order.

MAYOR WELCOMES.
Mayor J. J. McNamara of Martinez opened the meeting with an address of welcome, extending the courtesies of the city to the veterans.

A brief business session immediately followed, during which routine business was disposed of, and following this Past Commander B. A. Forster of the Department of California delivered an oration of the day. This ended the formal business of the day.

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, 200 strong, were present at the opening session and will be the guests to-morrow night at City Hall Park, where the veterans and the citizens' committee will hold hosts.

Tomorrow will witness a great street parade, one of the big events of the encampment. The entire body of veterans present will march in full uniform and elaborate preparations are being made for the event. The parade will be an excursion to Bay points will be taken. The session will close with a grand ball and carnival at the Martinez Athletic Club.

ELDEST VETERAN.
One of the prominent figures in the encampment this year is Allan Currie, 79 years old, the oldest Spanish war veteran in the encampment. He is a member of Farragut Post, No. 4, and N. A. Miles Post, No. 1. Currie enlisted in the United States army in 1861 and has been in every war fought by this country since that time. He is known among his fellows as "Convention Bill."

Martinez is in gala attire for the veterans. Bunting and flags line the streets, colored lights are strung, business houses have closed their doors and the entire city has been given over to celebration during the stay of the soldiers. Citizens and veterans alike are making every effort to insure the success of the big encampment.

Militant Damages Valuable Portrait

LONDON, May 12.—A militant suffragette, armed with a hatchet, seriously damaged today a valuable portrait of the Duke of Wellington in the Royal Academy.

The woman was standing, looking at the painting, when she drew the hatchet and slashed the canvas three times. An attendant promptly seized her and took her to the police station, where she said her name was Mary Arscott.

The painting was by the late Sir Hubert Van Hemerker, who died March 31, 1913. It was considered one of his finest works.

LILLIAN LENTON RELEASED.
LEEDS, Eng., May 12.—A hunger and thirst strike brought about the release of Lillian Lenton, militant suffragette, who was sentenced on May 3 to a year's imprisonment for setting fire to Westfield House, Doncaster.

Stairway Choked, Three Women Die In Blazing Hotel

YUMA, Ariz., May 12.—Three women were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed the Hotel Imperial. After the flames had been subdued the bodies of Miss Naomi Strong and Miss Genevieve Brown, school teachers, and of Miss Brown's mother were found together where the head of the stairway had been. The loss was $8000, partially covered by insurance.

Journalism is Sacred, Dr. Gladden

Famous Pastor Likens Newspaper Profession to the Ministry.

LAWRENCE, Kas., May 12.—The newspaper profession is as sacred a calling as the ministry in the opinion of Dr. Washington Gladden of Columbus, O., as expressed in an address made by the preacher and former editor before hundreds of newspapermen here today at the national newspaper conference conducted by the University of Kansas.

Other speakers on today's program were H. F. Harrington of the Ohio State Journal and Will Irwin, a magazine writer. A paper by Frank B. Rowland, D. C. president of the Associated Press, on press association work was read.

Dr. Gladden decried what he referred to as a tendency of some newspapermen toward "habits of exaggeration" and the exploitation of crime, "the and scandal." He outlined four great tasks for American journalism in the performance of which he said it might aid in purifying and invigorating public opinion.

DEPENDS ON PEOPLE.
"First—To teach people to avoid exaggeration and violent speech and to cultivate moderate and rational modes of expression."

"Second—To resist the tendencies which substitute the mob mind for the deliberate habit."

"Third—To hold the popular judgment firmly to the truth that character and manhood and not money and power are the central values of human existence."

"Fourth—To turn the thoughts of men more and more from the negative virtue of detecting and exposing the evil to the positive virtue of discerning and praising the good."

SEEK GOOD.
Dr. Gladden, "that are doing much to bring to earth a reign of good will. They are disposed to discern the good and rejoice in it; they cultivate gracious speech and kindly judgment of their fellowmen. And yet I fear that in the truest sense of the word, the newspaper is the day's habit which so largely prevails of fixing the attention of the evil of society, of keeping the seamy side of life uppermost."

and scandal, furnishes to quite too large an extent the common notion of the function of journalism. It is not true that one of the deepest needs of our social life is the need of a kinder judgment of our neighbor, the need of a disposition to see the good side of everybody? And has not the newspaper a very large responsibility in obtaining such conditions?"

A large part of the day was given to discussions of news associations and questions pertaining to membership in the same. Charles H. Grassy, editor of the Baltimore Sun, is to address the editors tonight.

EXPOSES "OLIGARCHY."
Legislation proposed to license newspapermen "would be a blow up a newspaper oligarchy," General Harrison Gray Otis, editor of the Los Angeles Times, asserted at yesterday's newspaper conference. General Otis said:

"All citizens must be left free to break into the newspaper business and to succeed or fail there according to their respective abilities or lack of the same, their good or bad motives and their power to impress or disgust their fellow citizens while in the editorial tripod with pen in hand."

General Otis said newspapermen should not be regulated by law any further than to be required to obey the law, respect the court and observe the constitution.

"Competition finally will justify scrupulous, competent writers and honest advertising men," Louis Wick, business manager of the New York Times, said in discussing the question "Is not the public so dependent on the press for its social welfare that newspapermen should be dealt with as public utilities?"

"Show an intelligent citizen one instance where a newspaper has published a thoroughly truthful account of an event," said Wick, "and another instance where a second paper has copied or imitated information and you will find the reader strongly in favor of the first paper."

New Haven Inquiry For Criminal Courts

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Indications today were that the inquiry being conducted by the Interstate Commerce Commission into the disjunctive operation of the New Haven railroad and the Billard company would soon run its course.

"This is a case for the criminal courts," suggested one official of the commission, doubting whether, in a proceeding of the kind, the railroad can be developed."

It was known that the department of justice is opposed to the proposed President's plan to S. M. Wilson and the other directors of the New Haven, Lewis & Cass, Lehigh Valley, William Rockefeller, George F. Baker and George McCulloch Miller.

REDEMPTION OF 'JIMMY THE RAT'

Newsboy Tells How He Became Go-to-Church Sunday "Booster."

The newsboy who, on Monday, in behalf of the "Go to Church" crusade for a gala day next Sunday are passing no one in their endeavor to fill every house of worship.

A sweet-faced little woman working among the downtown banks approached a newsboy yesterday and asked him if he were going to church May 17.

"Say," said "Jimmy the Rat," known to every newsboy on this side of the bay, "I'll go if you'll go with me."

"You know I had a hunch that I wouldn't like to go and sit in a stuffy old church listening to some guy talk about the Lord and brimstone and other things that don't look good to yours truly, but I just had a funny experience and I'm for this go to church thing and even if the guys do kid me when I talk about it some of 'em are getting' her to the real dope and I'll bet you'll see some newsboys in church next Sunday sure as shootin'."

HOW IT HAPPENED.
"You see it was this way. When this 'manana' war broke out it was a Sunday that the papers ran an extra on 'boot-jackin' way out in Fruitvale that night when I spied a church full of a pretty good crowd inside. It looked good to me and I had about 75 sheets left so I hung around outside for a few minutes and a guy came out and read an extra and then said 'Why don't you come in.' I said, 'Naw, I don't want to go because I didn't want to go because I used to go to church back in York state, where I was born, and when I had a ladder and mudder and everything, and the preacher used to talk about fire and brimstone and all that stuff and it made me tired. I had to dress up every Sunday and put on shoes and stockings and maybe I had a stone bruise and the shoe hurt and my collar hurt my neck and I had to shift for myself and didn't have anybody to make me go to church I didn't, cause every time I'd think about it I'd think of the fire and brimstone and that if I went in swimmin' on Sunday I'd be down and out both ways and I wouldn't be able to rather take the swim than to hear about all the awful things I was cookin' up for myself in the hereafter."

NO RAVING.
"But finally I went in and say, the preacher was a quiet little man and a voice that just kinda soothed and pleased you just to hear it. He didn't rave and rant like the preacher I used to listen to, and whaddythink he was talkin' about? He was talkin' about good, pure and holy things and fresh air and helping their bodies to be strong so they could get the good things of life when they grew up and not be little runts that couldn't understand the joy of the great good things of God even if they wanted to. And he talked about helpin' women and men that were down and out as a part of the true religion, and I stayed and listened and I was glad I came and when I came out with the crowd I sold all my papers and made good money, but that Sunday night the church was worth more to me than all I made that week. I feel better, and I talk better and I'm almost quit cussin' cause I sure have got a hunch that if I had been to church before I would have amounted to something. I'm strong for 'Go to Church Sunday,' and I'll be in a front seat out in that little church in Fruitvale next Sunday and believe me, some of the bunch will be there with me. Every guy that buys a paper from me this week is goin' to get a 'Go to Church Sunday' talk from yours truly."

The little lady with the wistful eyes just wanted to hug "Jimmy the Rat" and Jimmy must have known it, for he suddenly shut up like a clam and edged away at the same time lifting his eye with a great reverence, and as he sold a paper to a prosperous banker the little lady heard him say, "Go to church Sunday, mister; you don't know what you're missin' if you haven't been in a long time."
